

Unit's III –V Test Review

You need to find and highlight the following and talk out the concept with a partner. You have ten minutes to complete the assignment. (30 x 2 = 60 points)

Unit III:

What is Lightning War: - Blitzkrieg Tactics, Pro's & Con's, Who is Heinz Guderian, Panzer Divisions

Invasion of France: -Case Yellow vs. Cut of the Sickle, Dyle Line, Dunkirk, & Fall of France

Invasion of Poland: Date & Tactics

The so called Phony War?

The Russo-Finish War: On Paper Advantages, Winter War Tactics, Results of the War

Unit IV:

Invasion of Britain: Sea Lion & Eagle Day, German Bombers, German Fighters, British Fighters & Defense Plan Strategy, 4 Phases of Battle of Britain, Who is Douglas Bader?

Invasion of Soviet Union: Plan for Barbarossa, Soviet Intelligence Failure, Siege of Leningrad, Drive to Moscow, Soviet Tanks, Who are the Einatzgruppen?, Hitler's Blunder with Moscow

Unit V:

U.S. Neutrality Acts, Way's FDR assisted Great Britain, What was the Hull Ultimatum?, Japanese Military Leaders at Pearl Harbor, Japanese Zero, Fall of the Wake Island, Mac Arthur and the Philippines, Bataan Death March, Who were the Flying Tigers, Fall of Singapore, Doolittle Raiders

Part II: Essay Question

“Pearl Harbor”

40 points

The Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor was an attempt by Axis leader to limit a potential adversarial threat before it became too big of a problem. The Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor allowed for early success but in the end, would pave the way for Japan's downfall by antagonizing an enemy it could never hope to conquer. You need to address the following in your essay

- A. The Japanese battle plan for pearl harbor including the distance, number of Carriers, support fleet, route, and launch point
- B. Two advantages and disadvantages for both sides prior to the attack
- C. Describe in depth Wave 1 and Wave 2 of the Japanese attack including planes, targets and success. What about Wave 3?
- D. What were the immediate effects on the U.S. and long range effects on the Pacific War?