RE: Center for Youth- 2016-2017 Contract

The Center for Youth (CFY) entered into a partnership with the district for the 2015-2016 academic school year to provide customized services for each of our middle schools. The purpose of this memo is to request the continuation of the Alternative to Suspension (ATS) program for Hoover and Franklin Middle Schools for the 2016-2017 school year.

Based on the positive impact on the suspension rate for FMS and HMS and the need to continue the positive progress, Mr. Ginestre and Mrs. Persico support the continuation of the ATS program for the upcoming school year. This will be the second year of a two year coaching model to address out of school suspension rates.

The costs associated with the ATS program will be covered through the IDEA 611 grant and CEIS funds. It is anticipated that the ATS program will yield savings in home instruction costs by reducing the number of HI hours required by middle school students.
