NATIONAL HISTORY DAY

National History Day (NHD) is an educational organization that operates a year-round program dedicated to enhancing and improving the teaching and learning of history in elementary and secondary schools. NHD empowers teachers to improve history education so that every student will be equipped with a working knowledge of history, and will develop the skills necessary to contribute to the public good of our nation. History comes alive for NHD participants. The NHD student competition is the nation's oldest and most highly regarded history program for students in grades 6-12; this academic challenge engages more than half a million students annually.

HOW TO USE THE ONLINE REGISTRATION SYSTEM:

Simply follow these easy steps to register for New York State History Day!

1. Obtain your 4-digit registration code from your teacher.
2. Log on to: <http://www.nyshistoryday.org/>
3. On the main page, click on the Registering for New York State History Day icon
4. You should now see a page that says "Welcome to Online Registration!" The instructions on the page, in addition to these steps, will help you navigate the system.
5. Click the link that reads "2016 New York State History Day."
6. You should now be on a page with a drop-down menu. Select "Competing Student" and click "Submit."
7. Click on "Don't have a username and password? Click here to begin." At the "1: Confirm Your Identity" screen, choose NY from the drop down menu, then type your last name and 4 digit code in the boxes. Click "Submit." If you registered using the online system for your regional contest please use the same username and password that you created before.
8. The page should say "2: Is This You?" If you see your full name below, click the green "yes." (If it isn't you, or if you get a message saying there were no matches, contact your teacher and have him or her check your info using their log in.)
9. The page should now say "3. Establish Your Account Username and Password." Do what the screen tells you to do, then click "Submit."
10. You should now be on a page that says "Welcome to Online Registration for 2015 New York State History Day." There will be a lot of important information at the top. Please take the time to read this page.
11. Registration has been divided into 3 steps. Let's start with STEP 1: STUDENT INFORMATION: Part A. You will see a series of links below the heading. Any link that has a red asterisk in front of it MUST be completed. Links without asterisks are optional.
12. Click on the first link "Who Are You:" This will take you to a page where you must type in information. You only have to complete the forms with asterisks. When you are done, click "SAVE." You should now see a green check mark next to the link.
13. Click on the "Statement of Originality" link. Read this statement. If this statement is true and you would like to compete, select "Yes" from the drop down menu. Then click "SAVE" in order to continue.
14. Click on the title of your entry under the "Entry Information" heading. Check to make sure the information your teacher entered is correct. Add a brief description. This will help the state office know if you qualify for Special Awards. Type your special needs, if any. Please know that we may not be able to accommodate all of your needs. See the contest rulebook for the list of what the state competition will provide; we will contact you before the contest if we can't meet your need.

15. Move on to STEP 2: PARENT/GUARDIAN, FAMILY AND FRIEND INFORMATION. This is important! You need your parent or legal guardian to complete the "Register a Parent/Other" and "Parent/Guardian Permission for Student Participation" areas in order to complete your registration.
  16. Move on to STEP 3: CONTEST EXTRAS. This step allows you and your family to register for the Welcome Barbeque. Click the "Optional Events and Activities you and/or your parents/Guardian would like to attend" link. If you are going to attend, click the box under your name. If you would like to purchase additional tickets, put the number in the proper box. (Do not count yourself in this number!) Also, you DO NOT need to provide the names of the attendees in the text box. Leave the text box blank and click "SAVE."
  17. When all the boxes in front of each field have green check boxes, you can complete your registration by clicking "Confirm Registration and Review Fee Summary." If the system doesn't have all the info it needs, it will tell you what you have to go back and fix. If your registration is complete, you will be at the payment screen. Below a bunch of text you should see a box with your name in it.
  18. If you or a parent/guardian are paying for your entry fee: Click the box under your name and click "Click to Save and Continue." You can pay one of two ways:
    - a. Using Visa, MasterCard, American Express, or Discover to make a secure payment online. Just click the Credit Card box and follow the prompts.
    - b. Mailing in a check. Click the Check box and follow the prompts
  19. If your school district is going to pay for your entry fee: Click "Return to Registration" and then "Finished for now? Save and Log Out." Notify your teacher that you have completed the registration form so that your teacher can submit the fee for your entry.
  20. When your entry fee payment is received and processed, you will receive an email confirmation of your registration. It can take up to 5 business days to receive a confirmation email, and even longer if you pay by check. Please note that the system will not send a confirmation email until payment is received. If your school is paying with a purchase order, this means payment may not be received before the day of the contest. If you have concerns about your registration status, please contact our office.

- Free shuttle service between judging sites will be available on Monday, April 27 from 8:30-4:00. The shuttle schedule and pick-up locations will be posted at the Registration and Information Table in the entrance area of the Main Barn at The Farmers' Museum. Shuttle buses will not run through the awards ceremony.

CANCELLATION POLICY

New York State History Day cancellations must be made in writing before April 4, 2016. The New York State Historical Association is unable to provide refunds after April 4, 2016. Hotel cancellations should be made directly with the hotel, and are susceptible to the individual hotel's cancellation policy.

CHAPERONE RESPONSIBILITIES

All students attending the History Day State Contest must be accompanied by an adult chaperone. Chaperones are responsible for the behavior of the students in their charge for the duration of the contest. Larger groups should have enough chaperones to provide adequate supervision.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

As guests of the New York State Historical Association and the Village of Cooperstown, students are expected to abide by the following Code of Conduct:

- Students agree to follow the rules of the host hotels and the rules at each judging location.
- Students agree not to create excessive noise or disruptions which interfere with judging of student entries and/or other activities during New York State History Day.
- Students agree not to possess or use alcoholic beverages or other illegal substances (including tobacco and cigarettes) at any time during the contest.
- Students agree not to abuse, vandalize or steal any property or service.
- Students agree not to possess any weapons, firecrackers, or other flammable materials.
- Students agree not to physically harm, threaten, or harass any person, nor provoke and/or engage in physical fights or malicious pranks.
- Students agree not to tamper with museum or hotel fire systems or fire safety equipment, nor shall students set or fuel a fire of any size.
- Students agree to abide by all History Day rules as set forth in the National History Day Contest Rule Book.

Students who violate any aspect of the Code of Conduct will be subject to punishment, up to and including financial restitution, and may be sent home at parents' expense. In addition, students in violation of the Code of Conduct are subject to disqualification from New York State History Day. Student winners who are found in violation of contest rules and/or the Code of Conduct will not represent New York State at the National Contest at the University of Maryland.

To: Mary Jane Vanderbosch <mvanderbosch@ktufsd.org>

Mary Jane,

We are requesting permission for our IB Economics class to travel to Cooperstown, NY to compete in the State History Day competition that is on Monday, April 18, 2016.

Funding for this trip will be from our Contractual account 2110-400-02-0000 for the following:

1 -8 passenger Minivan rented from Enterprise (cost from Denise Crowley)	$184.00
5 -rooms at the Holiday Inn-Oneonta-cooperstown Area ($109.00 ea)	545.00
Fuel & tolls for the trip (Minivan and parent's vehicle)	150.00 approx.

The total cost for this trip will be $879.00

Alex Perry will be driving the Minivan with 7 of the students. A parent, Justin Ghosen will be driving his own daughter and will be the second chaperone on this trip. I have attached the confirmations for the 5 rooms.

Please let me know if you need anymore information.

Thanks!
