

You have to apply for Senior Opportunities, application is online or you can pick one up in the main office.

To qualify: Junior year average needs to be an 85 or better and no major discipline issues.

You only need to apply once for senior opportunities, every five weeks you will be reevaluated. If you maintain an 85 average with no failures or incompletes, have good attendance and no referrals you are good.

If you do not qualify you will lose senior opportunities until the next 5 week grades are out, you will need to turn in your card to the main office and refrain from using the program until you qualify again.

You can apply any time for senior opportunities, the previous 5 week marking period information will be used to qualify.
