Meeting Dates and Theme:

“Improving your child’s educational opportunities through effective communication.”

Each month there will be a presentation by a guest professional.

September 23 – Introduction to this year’s topics Identify your child’s educational needs and improve your communication skills to achieve your goals. Get acquainted with SEPTSA.

October 14 – Teacher – Understanding faculty and staff expectations to improve your child’s ability to succeed. Communication methods available for Elementary, Middle and High School.

November 18 – Parent - How to effectively express your child’s needs to the many experts you encounter to increase your child’s educational opportunities. (i.e. school, medical and legal)

January 13 – Student – Parents need to help their children learn good communication skills in order to develop the social skills necessary for problem solving and decision making.

February 10 - Communication challenges - Children today face increased stress from academics, peers and family situations. We need to identify their non-verbal communication in order to address their anxiety and depression.

March 10 – Alternative methods of communication – Researchers have developed alternative methods of helping our children to express themselves and learn skills of daily living. (i.e. video games, art, music and drama)

April 14 – Members choice –Through our communication we will decide what we would like to discuss further.

May 12 - Year end wrap up: elections, awards, scholarships, and planning for 2011-2012
