Kenmore West rebounded from a pair of opening losses to beat West Seneca West 28-9 last week. If the Blue Devils are going to run the table they will be relying heavily on senior RB Alex Price.

9 Big George Leads North

Williamsville North beat crosstown rival Williamsville East 21-0 last week. It was the Spartans first win of the season. If the Spartans are going to claw back into the playoff chase, they will be looking to rely on junior lineman George Attea.

14 Senior Turns Teacher

JFK lost to Lackawanna last week and dropped to 0-3 on the season. The coaching staff is relying on a few seniors to help with the teaching this season. Team captain Jeff Retzer is playing a big role with the Bears.

16 Ellicottville Faces Rival

Ellicottville is 1-1 and will be returning to the field after having their game with Westfield cancelled last weekend. If the Eagles are going to make a run to the playoffs, they will be looking for a big contribution from LB Calum Watt.

East Aurora's Wade Honored for Win

East Aurora coach Tim Wade was a unanimous selection as the Buffalo Bills / New York National Guard Coach of the Week after his Blue Devils upset Eden 24-3 last weekend.

"That's pretty cool," Wade said, "I wish I could say it was all me but it was the kids. They believe in what we are doing. They have worked hard to become better football players."

Eden was a heavy favorite entering the game.

"Eden is a good team," Wade said. "And they have a reputation for being a physical team that can run the ball."

Wade says that he saw his players energy level pick up after the Devils first series on defense.

"We went on defense and shut them down," Wade said. "The kids suddenly realized that they could play with them. We could do this."

After East Aurora forced a punt, the Blue Devils struck.

Joe Gugino broke away for a 50-yard TD run.

"We got a first down and then Joe ripped off the run," Wade said. "At that point, everything started to shift. For a team that is starting to believe in themselves, that kind of play can really bring the players up. That play really picked up all the players who were playing and the players on the sideline. The defense really started playing well and just being really physical."

East Aurora led 7-0 after the first quarter.

At the start of the second quarter, the Blue Devils stretched the lead. They drove to the Eden 20-yard line and Mike Coatsworth kicked a 37-yard FG.

"We had a bad snap," Wade said, "but Connor Allan pick it up and got it put down. Mike hit the kick."

Later in the 2nd quarter, Allan hit Tom Volpe with a 67-yard TD pass to give the Devils a 17-0 lead at the half.

Eden pulled within 17-3 with a FG in the third quarter but East Aurora put the game away in the final quarter when Gugino ran 67-yards for a TD.

"It was a big win," Wade said. "We have been down for a couple of years and we have been trying to get the kids to believe they can be a good team. A win like this can really make them believe that they can play with anybody."

Wade played high school football at Massena High School in Northern New York.

"It's the most northern town in New York State," Wade said. "We were closer to Montreal than we were to Syracuse."

Massena has a long history of winning football. The school still has longest win streak in NYS history.

Massena won 55 straight games, a streak that ended in 1957.

"They lost a couple of games and then started a new streak that went 47 games," Wade said. "I was a part of the second streak."

Wade was named an all-league player at RB and DB before he graduated in the spring of 1973. He then played two years of football at Hudson Valley Community College.

After earning his 2-year degree,

Wade transferred to SUNY Brockport... but didn't play football.

"I actually tried out for the hockey team and played three years of hockey at Brockport," he said.

He met his wife Leslie at Brockport and they settled in East Aurora. He teaches at Eden High School but landed the east Aurora coaching job 12 years ago.

"Both my boys were playing at East Aurora," he said. "I knew that time you can spend with your kids is something you can never get back. I wanted to be a part of their lives and it was a no brainer to apply for the East Aurora job when it opened up. Coaching at East Aurora has never been anything but a marvelous experience."

Wade's son Eddie went to Monroe CC to play lacrosse while his son Andrew played football at Cornell.

Wade has a career record of 48-28.

The Best D Rivalry in the State

Friday, 7:00 pm, Randolph @ Maple Grove

Randolph and Maple Grove are two of the most respected small school programs in New York State. They also happen to be in the same division. The winner of their matchup is usually an odds-on favorite to advance deep into New York State Tournament play.

Since the State went to the current classification system in 1996, these two programs have combined to win 5 NYS Titles (including 3 of the last 5) in Class D. Ten of the 17 Section VI D crowns have gone to one of the two schools. If not for a 4-year run by Clymer and Jehuu Caulcrick, it might be 14 of 17. They've met 7 times in the playoffs with Randolph holding a 4-3 edge. They are 2-2 in games played at the Ralph. Last year, Randolph won the state title but Maple Grove beat them 27-14 in the regular season.

One of the most definitive years in the history between these two programs was 2009. Randolph would end up winning the state title that year, but it very well could have been Maple Grove. Flip a coin.

Maple Grove beat Randolph early in the year 7-6, and then proceeded to score at least 4 TDs in every game of the regular season and playoffs leading up to a rematch at the Ralph for the Sectional Title. Maple Grove seemed to be poised for another state title, earning back-to-back championships.

In one of the most iconic games ever held at the Ralph, Randolph would "upset" Maple Grove. The signature moment of the game occurred when the Red Dragons scored a TD in the closing moments of the game to pull within 21-20.

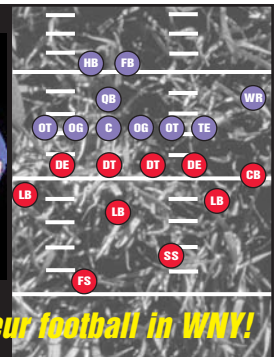

Maple Grove QB Chris Secky also did place-kicking duties, but wore a special flat-toed kicking shoe. After every TD that season, he would rush over to the sideline and change into the kicking shoe before the PAT attempt.

But, this time, there was problem with his shoe and the laces were tied in a knot. He struggled to get the shoe on. As the play-clock was counting down, he finally managed to get the shoe on and rushed onto the field. The special teams unit tried to hurry the play. This messed up the timing of the entire play and the kick sailed wide, leaving the Cardinals one point ahead. A failed onside kickoff gave Randolph the win.

Randolph would outscore Dundee and Groton 102-8 on its route to winning the state title that year. It's a safe bet that Maple Grove would have fared the same.

M-m-m-m-m... GOOD!

By Mark Adair

Burgard beat Lew-Port 31-0 last weekend to improve to 3-0 on the season. It was the Bulldogs third shutout of the season as they have also beaten Bennett (14-0) and Albion (48-0) while not allowing a point.

"I knew we had some returning players that could play," Burgard coach Jason Kolb said. "With the special kids that were coming up from the JV team, I knew we would be pretty good this season."

Kolb says that his team has also benefitted from Burgard's consolidation with nearby MTS Seneca School.

"That school is just on the other side of ECMC from us," Kolb said. "It's just a couple-mile walk for those kids to come to practice with our kids at Burgard."

Last season, the MTS Seneca kids were playing at Riverside.

"None of this would have happened if those kids were still at Riverside," Kolb said. "It was hard for those kids to get to practice every day. We got more kids to come out for football this year because they are so much closer to us and it's easier on them to participate with the team."

The result has been that Kolb has one of the deepest squads he has ever coached.

"We have first and second groups that I can actually put into the game," he said. "Most of our second-team kids could start at other high schools. We don't have to have everyone playing both ways now so it keeps them fresh for the fourth quarter."

The 3-0 start has excited everyone at both Burgard and MTS Seneca. The Bulldogs are starting to get noticed.

"We were invited to appear on the Fred Jackson Show earlier this week," Kolb said. "When we are at practice the kids are having fun. They are singing on the bus rides home, they are excited and having a great time. I've never seen these kids light up so much."

Burgard is currently ranked #5 in the Buffalo News Small Schools poll and #13 in the New York State Class B poll. Kolb says that his players

"The other students in school know that we are winning and they are starting to get excited, too," Kolb said.

While the Burgard defense is getting most of the headlines right now, the Bulldogs offensive line has quietly become as good as any O-line in Western New York.

"Our offensive line is all Burgard kids," Kolb said. "They are good friends and they hang out together outside of school. These guys came every day to work out together in the off-season. They communicate with each other on the field. It's really exciting to see a group of guys mold together like they have."

Oddly, all five of the offensive linemen have last names that begin with the letter M.

"We didn't really even think about it when practice started in August," Kolb said. "But one day, we were going over the depth chart and coach Braun noticed it. We thought it was kind of funny."

Each one of the linemen in the m&m (and m&m&m) squad brings a different skill to the unit.

Laron McKinney (a 6-0, 275-pound junior) starts at RT.

"He's one of the stronger linemen we have," Kolb said. "He's the second-strongest kid on the team."

Roderick Morrow (a 6-2, 215-pound junior) starts at RG.

"He's the best all-around athlete and the leader of the group,"

Kolb said. "He can move, he's strong and he can hit. He playing great at defensive end, too."

Alex Montilla (a 6-0, 270-pound senior) starts at C.

"Alex is the strongest kid of the group," Kolb said.

"He can bench press over 300 and squat over 375. He lived in the weight room in the offseason."

Taiwon Moss (a 6-5, 280-pound junior) starts at RG.

"He's a quiet kid," Kolb said. "He's always making sure that he is doing the right stuff and always staying after practice to do extra work. He's also the hardest hitter on the team."

Taiwon's cousin, Emmanuel Moss (a 6-6, 290-pound junior) is the biggest of the bunch. Emmanuel Moss starts at RT.

"He also plays basketball," Kolb said. "Both of the Moss kids play basketball and can move up and down the court. They are pretty athletic for big men."

The offensive line will now lead the Bulldogs into one of the biggest games in years, when Burgard hosts undefeated Medina (also 3-0) at All-High Stadium at 4 pm on Saturday.

"Medina is a very good team," Kolb said. "Medina has scored more points than we have but we have three shutouts. Medina has not been tested by a team like ours... but we haven't been tested by a team like Medina either."

This game will go a long way towards sorting out the Class B playoff picture.

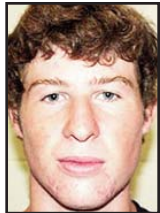

"It's a big game for us," Kolb said, "and it should be a great game. We're excited to get a chance to play a game like this."

The Price is Right for West

Kenmore West rebounded from a pair of opening losses to beat West Seneca West 28-9 last week.

"I thought we played well," coach Rich Harris said, "but, a few times we drove the ball down into the red zone and stubbed our toes. We still have to get better."

Kenmore West lost to Lancaster when they lost six turnovers. The Devils led 28-24 in the 3rd quarter before falling to Jamestown 50-28 in Week 2.

Harris said that his players are disappointed with the start to the season, despite the win.

"We had big aspirations for this team," he said. "We feel we should be 2-1 at this point.

Everybody feels like we've underachieved and that we still have a lot to prove."

Earning the first win did help.

"Right now, the mood is good," Harris said. "We are focused. We have re-set our . We want to win out, make the playoffs and get some respect for our football team. The kids feel like they can play even better."

If the Blue Devils are going to run the table they will be relying heavily on RB Alex Price.

"He's a horse," Harris said. "He's strong and a great inside runner."

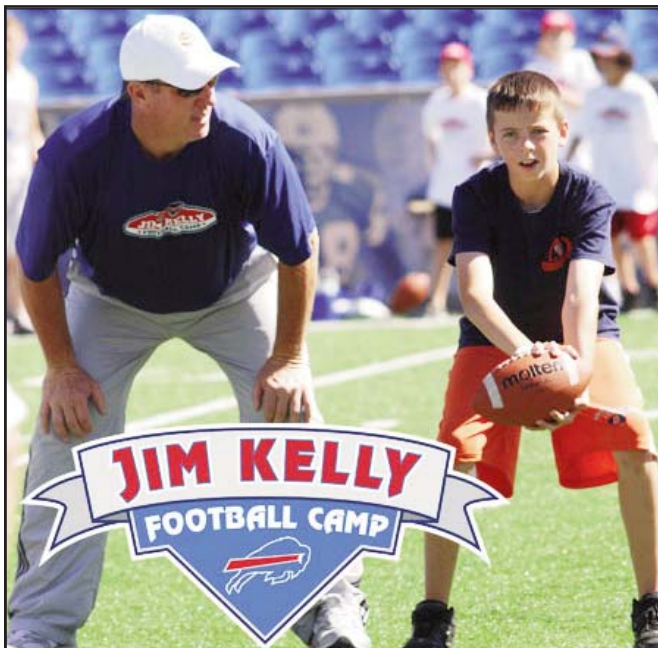

Price, a 3-year starter, ran 24 times for 149 yards and 2 TDs in the win over West Seneca West.

"He was an immediate impact player when we called him up to the varsity," Harris said. "He was an immediate starter on defense and he has been the starting running back for two years now."

Price (5-9, 165) rushed for 1,001 yards in less than 6 games. He missed two games with, incredibly, a broken neck.

"He did it in the Lockport game," Harris said, "but he played another game and a half with it. It was a small fracture on the wing of one of the disks. It was scary but it really wasn't very serious. He's a tough kid."

Wheatfield Coming Closer

Niagara Wheatfield lost a tense, defensive slugfest 13-7 to Grand Island last weekend. The game was played in a steady downpour and both offenses struggled on the wet field. The Falcons are still looking for their first win of the year.

"It was a hard-fought game," Wheatfield coach Brent Tylec said. "The team that limited the turnovers would come out on top. Our kids were in tears at the end. They work hard and they want to win."

The Falcons allowed Grand Island to return the opening kickoff 80 yards for the game's first TD.

"We worked all week on special teams," Tylec said. "We spent a tremendous amount of practice time on it. To give up a long return on the opening kickoff, that stings a bit."

The special teams did make a big play in the third quarter to make up for the lapse on the opening kickoff.

"Our defense backed them up," Tylec said, "and then we had a big punt block." Senior Jason Vranic blitzed through the line and tackled the punter before he could kick the ball. The Falcons recovered on the 2-yard line, setting up their only score.

"The defense has kept us together," Tylec said. "Our defense can keep us in any game. They are playing hard."

Vranic, a team captain, starts at LB and is the Falcons leading tackler.

"He's not the biggest or the fastest," Tylec said, "but he makes tremendous reads. He knows where to go to fill holes and puts himself in a good position to make the play."

Vranic (5-11, 200) also starts at

FB. He has already made more than 30 tackles in just three games. He has also blocked a PAT and recovered a fumble.

"Any team we played did not have an answer for him," Tylec said. "The other kids feed off of his effort and hard-nosed play. He's a very focused kid."

'Big George' Leads Spartans

Williamsville North beat crosstown rival Williamsville East 21-0 last week. It was the Spartans first win of the season.

"We were extremely physical in all three phases of the game," North coach Mike Mammoliti said. "We geared up to stop the run. The different looks we gave them caused some breakdowns that we were able to take advantage of."

Mammoliti said that his players were angry after losing the first two games of the season - especially the 2nd game against the Spartans other rival Williamsville South.

"Our guys were ticked off," he said. "They knew they let one slip away in Week 1 against McKinley. We missed to PATs and we had 2 touchdowns called back. It was there to be had."

Playing Williamsville East one week after playing Williamsville South was an odd quirk in the schedule.

"To play two rivalry games back-to-back is pretty unusual," Mammoliti said.

"Our kids saw it as an opportunity. If we can put a few wins together, it puts us right back in the playoff race."

If the Spartans are going to claw back into the playoff chase, they will be looking to rely on junior lineman George Attea.

He started last year as a sophomore," Mammoliti said. "He's pretty athletic for a big guy. He also plays basketball and has great feet. He uses his hands like a senior who has been coached for 3 years. I just love the way he uses his leverage."

Attea (6-4, 256) has an academic average of 92.

"He's a studious kid and does well in school," Mammoliti said. "We call him

Williamsville North junior George Attea.

Big George and he's a good kid to have in the program."

Attea is a high-energy player, according to his coach.

"He never quits," Mammoliti said. "He always finishes a play. No question that he is one of the best linemen in the area."

Hamburg Senior Fills the Bill

Hamburg rebounded from two opening losses to beat Lake Shore 35-14 for the Bulldogs first win of the season.

"I was happy for the kids and the coaches," Hamburg coach Pat Cauley said.

"Everybody has put in a lot of hours working on this. Lake Shore played hard and we had to earn it."

Hamburg opened the season with losses to Grand Island and Hutch Tech.

"The losses were against good clubs," Cauley said. "We made mistakes to hurt ourselves."

In the win over Lew-Port, the Bulldogs pulled away in the fourth quarter when they scored 4 TDs.

They trailed 14-7 entering the final frame.

"We faced some adversity," Cauley said, "but we've been facing adversity all season. Right from the first play of the first game."

Senior FB Vinny Sardo suffered a season-ending knee injury on the first play of the season-opener. In the 2nd game, QB Colin Daly suffered a torn ligament in his throwing shoulder and will need surgery.

If the Bulldogs are going to weather the storm of the early season injuries and losses, they will need senior lineman Jeremiah Bill to hold things together.

"All the kids look to Jeremiah," Cauley said. "He's a four-year player and been in a lot of situations. He's done a great job getting the others to believe and focus on the task at hand."

Bill (6-3, 265) starts at OT and DT for the Bulldogs.

"He is sound and a very good technician," Cauley said.

"His footwork is solid. He'll get stronger as he moves to the next level."

Bill, a team captain, is a solid student with an academic average in the 90s.

"He has a great work ethic," Cauley said. "He was at our off-season conditioning program every day. He led the other kids to get there and do the work. I'm very proud of him."

Baker Solid at Amherst

Amherst rebounded from two losses to beat Barker 34-20 last weekend as the Tigers earned their first win of the season.

The Tigers opened with a 48-6 loss to Medina before losing their annual Thursday night Yom Kippur game to Williamsville East 33-9.

"Playing on Thursday isn't that much different," coach Jason Beckman said. "You're short a day in preparing for the game so maybe you don't have as many wrinkles in the game plan."

Amherst has had to battle an early injury bug this fall.

"We lost 3 kids during first week," Beckman said. "It was tough. After playing on Thursday, we gave the kids 3 days off. We came back on Monday to get ready for Barker."

Beckman did not mention the two losses to his players.

"We really focused on what we did well in those games," Beckman said. "We only punted once against Williamsville East. The kids kept fighting the whole game. Nobody hung their heads."

If Amherst is going to string a few more wins together, they will need help from senior LB Juwan Baker, who led the defense with a team-high 14 tackles, including 1 for lost yardage.

Baker, who played TB in 2012, made the move to FB this summer.

"We asked him to move to full-back," Beckman said. "He did it just to make the team better. If you ask him to do anything, he'll do it."

Beckman says that Baker, a team captain, is one of the hardest-working kids on the team.

"We opened the weight room on November 13th," he said. "He was one of a few kids who did not miss a workout for 2 months."

Baker maintains an academic average of 3.2, (on a 4.0 scale.)"

"He's a positive kid in the locker room," Beckman said, "and on the field. He's a great kid to have in the program."

East Aurora Earns Upset

East Aurora rebounded from a pair of losses to earn a solid 24-3 win over Eden last weekend, improving to 1-2 (1-1 in B South games).

"People looked at our first two games that we lost," coach Tim Wade said, "but we didn't back down in either game. We lost to Kenmore East and Depew. We knew both games would be physical. Nobody in our division has played two tougher games than we have."

Wade says that the Blue Devils were ready for Eden after opening the league schedule they way they did.

"We played a real physical game," he said. "Our kids were just flying to the ball. Hopefully it's a springboard for what's coming up."

East Aurora stopped Eden's maddening Double Wing offense from churning out long, grinding drives.

"The defense was all right," Wade said. "They got a few 3-and-outs."

Senior RB Joe Gugino led the Blue Devils offense as he rushed for 150 yards on 12 carries and 2 TDs. He broke free for a 50-yard TD in the 1st quarter and ran 62 yards for another score.

East Aurora senior Joe Gugino.

"He had another nice run that was called back by penalty," Wade said. "This is his third year on the varsity and he has always had that instinct that good runners have."

Gugino, a team captain, actually started at TE last season.

"Our numbers were so low that we had to play him there," Wade said. "He did have three rushes for 180 yards and 2 TDs. We knew we were going to move him back to TB this year."

Gugino (6-1, 190) may be one of the most under-rated players in WNY.

"He has great speed and he's elusive," Wade said. "If he gets a crack or gets a step, he's gone. No one has heard of him but he has earned the right to be mentioned with any of the backs in WNY."

Senior Turns Teacher at JFK

JFK lost to Lackawanna last week and dropped to 0-3 on the season.

"We knew that we would be coaching a young team this year," JFK coach Jeff Sabatino said. "We are teaching more than we ever have.

These kids have lots of potential but we have 28 kids and 21 of them are first-time varsity athletes."

In 2012, the Bears beat Cleve Hill to win the C North Division on the last day of the regular season.

And, of the 21 players on that team, 20 graduated.

"We have two sophomores and two freshman that are starting," Sabatino said. "We have several more sophomores that play major roles.

Instead of having a chance to learn things at the JV level, we had to throw them right into the fire and they have to learn on the varsity level. They are young and they are making mistakes."

The coaching staff is relying on a few seniors to help with the teaching this season. Team captain Jeff Retzer is playing a big role with the Bears this fall.

"Jeff is doing a phenomenal job being a leader," Sabatino said. "He was on a championship team but those players aren't here this year. He is doing a great job teaching the young kids."

Retzer is a RB who has had to start the season at QB.

"We are transitioning a sophomore to QB," Sabatino said. "Jeff is our best athlete and he has filled the role while we help the younger kid become a starter."

Sabatino says that Retzer will play more and more at RB as the season wears on.

"Our hope is that by Week 6, Jeff is doing what he does best, which is run the ball," he said.

Sabatino says that Retzer is a solid student with an academic average in the 90s.

"He does his job in the class room and he's a good kid to have around," he said.

"He is definitely a role model at JFK and we are proud to have him on the team."

Warriors Hope to Rebound

After starting the season with a pair of wins, Salamanca lost to Fredonia 35-22 last week.

"Fredonia has some kids," coach Jason Marsh said, "that if you give them just a little bit of space, they will take it to the house. And they certainly did a few times."

Marsh said that his Warriors actually played well and controlled the clock in the loss.

"Our offense did a great job," he said. "Our line played really well. I think Fredonia is a great football team and hopefully, we will get a chance to meet them again down the road."

Marsh says that his players have not lost sight of their goal for this season.

"Our kids definitely know that if we are going to win the Section 6 championship in Class C, it has to go through Fredonia," he said. "Hopefully, we'll get another chance at them."

Salamanca will play at Springville this weekend in a non-league contest.

"Our offense is starting to click a little bit," Marsh said. "We scored 43 against Silver Creek and 22 against Fredonia."

If the Warriors is going to make the Class C playoffs this season, they will need solid play from junior QB Jared Fish.

"He played JV ball last year," Marsh said. "He's a big kid and makes good decisions with the football."

Fish (6-6, 195) rushed for 40 yards and passed for 50 yards in the loss to Fredonia.

"He has a good arm," Marsh said, "and his size helps him to see over the line. We feel comfortable throwing the ball with him."

Fish also plays basketball and is a pitcher for the baseball team at Salamanca.

"He's quiet and reserved," Marsh said. "He leads by example and he's always there when he needs to be. He pushed himself in the summer. He put the extra time in to make himself a better athlete."

Ellicottville To Face Rival

Ellicottville is 1-1 and will be returning to the field after having their game with Westfield cancelled last weekend.

"In light of the tragedy, we decided to do a team-building activity," coach Chad Bartoszek said.

"We wanted the kids to appreciate each other and spend some time reflecting on why weren't playing. The best thing we could do is be together."

The last time the Eagles took the field, they were pounded by Randolph 50-0.

Ellicottville will host longtime rival Franklinville this week.

"It's a non-league game this year," Bartoszek said, "but the teams have a very long history of playing each other. The kids know each other and played in youth football against each other. This is a big game every year. If we are going to do anything this year, we need to rebound after the Randolph loss."

If the Eagles are going to make a run to the playoffs, they will be looking for a big contribution from LB Calum Watt, a junior who started in 2012.

"He secures the middle on defense," Bartoszek said. "He brings a high motor and intensity."

Ellicottville junior Calum Watt.

Watt (6-0, 208) is leading the Eagles with 19 tackles this fall. He also starts at FB on offense.

"We ask him to block a lot," Bartoszek said. "We would really like to get him the ball a little more. He's big, fast and physical. He has a lot of ability and we need to take advantage of it."

Watt has earned the right to be the Honorary Captain this week against Franklinville.

"We have one captain a week and he earned it this week," Bartoszek said. "The kids respect him as a player."

Watt is also active in the local youth football league.

"He's a good kid," Bartoszek said. "He goes over several days a week after practice and helps coach the little kids."

Sherman Gets Huge Win

Sherman improved to 3-0 and took possession of first place when the Wildcats beat Cattaraugus-LV 34-8. Catt-LV entered the game ranked 17th in NYS and was heavily favored in the game.

"The community has been excited about football for the last three or four years," coach Bob Krenzer said. "You can feel it when you go through the town. It's exciting."

Krenzer says that his players now have their sights set squarely on the DD playoffs.

"Our first goal is to make the playoffs," he said. "We also want to win the league and then win the playoff games. But we are a long way to getting those goals and we still have a lot of work to do."

The Wildcats beat Catt-LV despite a steady downpour and a field that turned into a quagmire.

"As the game went on, neither team was able to throw the ball very much," Krenzer said. "The ball was just too slippery. There were a lot of fumbles. We were having trouble with the exchange from center but we didn't lose any."

Senior RB Devin Moorhead churned out 138 yards and 2 TDs on 23 carries to lead the offense.

"Those are good numbers in those conditions," Krenzer said. "I know he would have wanted more."

Moorhead is a two-year starter. "He is shifty and makes good decisions," Krenzer said. "He's not a power runner. He relies on quickness and speed to make people miss."

Moorhead also starts at safety.

"He is a better safety than a running back," Krenzer said. "He's all over the field. He calls the defensive signals and makes tackles on the line of scrimmage."

Moorhead has become a team leader. "I didn't appoint him," Krenzer said. "I waited to see who would step up and take over and he did. He's a very dedicated football player."

Joe's Ready for Gauntlet

St. Joe's beat Cardinal O'Hara 53-16 last week to improve to 3-0 on the season.

"I'm pretty pleased," coach Dennis Gilbert said. "We start six sophomores and every one of them has gotten better each week. They have made some mistakes but I love their response."

Gilbert says that his young lineup is not repeating errors.

"They are learning from their mistakes" he said, "and they aren't resurfacing."

St. Joe's will now face a tough three-week stretch in which they play Aquinas, St. Francis and Erie Cathedral Prep.

"I call it our march through Death Row," Gilbert said. "We are going to get taken to the wall here three weeks in a row. We've been a resilient bunch and we've grown from our experiences but it's put-up or shut up time."

St. Joe's already has a win over one of the top programs in the state. The Marauders beat Long Island powerhouse St.

Anthony's in the first week of the season.

"We're playing well," Gilbert said. "but we have our work cut out for us."

If St. Joe's is to survive the gauntlet they will need continued steady play from sophomore QB Mike McCarthy.

"His skill set is pretty good," Gilbert said. "He has good size and he has a strong arm. His mental knowledge of the game and his awareness on the field is pretty good for a sophomore."

Gilbert says that McCarthy (6-4, 200) shows maturity on the field.

"One thing that sets him apart from most kids his age is that he doesn't get rattled," he said.

"He has an ability to read coverage and take what's McCarthy has an academic average well into the 90s.

"He is a top-notch student," Gilbert said. "He's quickly the respect of his teammates, too."

Training the Heart of a Champion from the Inside Out

The Heart of a Champion Character Playbook theme is

Answer The Call!

CTF's vision is to develop the hearts of coaches and athletes to be men of character for others.

The character trait we will discuss this week is one of the Top Ten Character traits of truth.

Self-Control is bringing every thought, action and word into constant obedience with truth. The outcome of this is discipline. As an athlete, your self-control instills a confidence and calm in those around you. The truth is an athlete of understanding has a calm spirit.

A hot-tempered person displays foolishness. That foolishness not only erupts on others and gets messy but gives license for others do to likewise.

The great Jackie Robinson was asked to respond to adversity by seeing the greater picture.

Jackie Robinson the great Brooklyn Dodger and first black professional baseball player spoke to his owner. "Mr. Rickey... Are you looking for a negro who is afraid to fight back?"

Rickey's response to Robinson, "I am looking for a ballplayer with guts enough not to fight back."

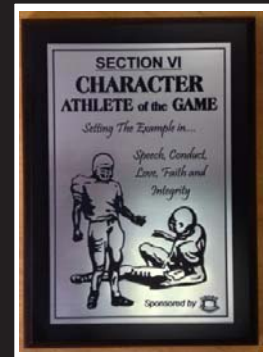

Do have the character not to trash back?

Remember, Love is patient, and looks for solutions vs. pointing fingers. Understand it is not if someone will make a mistake but when. Be a person who will have the even temper to make corrections in the heat of battle. Will you see the bigger picture and "Be....Steady and ANSWER THE CALL"?

The Next in Line

Pioneer senior Ryan Merlau is a high achiever in football, school

By Mark Adair

Pioneer beat Dunkirk 35-6 to improve to 2-1 on the season, 2-0 in Class B South games.

The Panthers have quietly rebounded from a season-opening 44-7 loss to powerhouse Oneida in the Syracuse Carrier Dome.

"We were absolutely destroyed in all phases of that game," Pioneer coach Jim Duprey said. "We were unprepared for that team. The best thing about the whole experience was that our kids never gave up."

Pioneer came home and beat Olean 10-7 in overtime the following week.

"Olean has a lot of great offensive weapons," Duprey said. "We played well on defense but we shot ourselves in the foot several times. To pull that game out in overtime was a real credit to the kids."

After the shellacking that the Panthers had endured, Duprey was worried about playing Olean.

"The most impressive part of the game was our defense, he said. "Olean has a really explosive team and Chris Edwards, our Defensive Coordinator, put together a phenomenal game plan. We were playing better but we still had a lot of things to clean up."

In last week's win over Dunkirk, Pioneer put together a solid game for the first time this season. The Panthers rushed for 256 yards as they used a punishing ground attack.

"We finally put it all together," Duprey said. "We played real well. Our commitment to the run game shows very well about our offensive linemen and our running backs."

In recent seasons, Pioneer has had a plethora of good offensive linemen.

Connor Johnson, last season's standout, is now playing at Edinboro. Randy Colling, who graduated in 2008, has received multiple NFL tryouts and is now playing for Cleveland in the Arena League.

And Dylan Anna, the 2010 Trench Trophy winner, is now playing at ECC.

"We've had a steady pipeline of really good offensive linemen," Duprey said. "A lot of times the O-line gets no credit but our kids deserve some."

Edwards, Pioneer's defensive coordinator, is also the Panthers line coach.

"I think you can search high and low," Duprey said, "and you will not find a better line coach than Chris. The results of his coaching speak pretty loudly."

This season, the Panthers are again getting solid line play as they gear up the ground attack.

"We're not as big as we have been," Duprey said. "We have good-sized kids but they aren't huge. We have a nice mix of seniors and underclassmen, too."

This season, the Panthers line is being led by senior team captain Ryan Merlau, a 2nd-team all-star after the 2012 season.

"He's a two-year starter," Duprey said, "but he started at center last year. We moved him to tackle this season."

Merlau is 6-foot-5 and 255 pounds and starts at both offensive tackle and defensive tackle.

"He worked so hard in the off-season," Duprey said. "He put on some really good weight. He put on 25 pounds of straight-up muscle. He's a really strong kid right now."

Merlau has been one of the top linemen in WNY early in the season.

"In the last two games, he has absolutely shined," Duprey said. "He is the guy opening the holes for the running backs. He has a non-stop motor and he plays whistle-to-whistle."

Merlau made three tackles-for-loss and also recorded a QB sack in the win over Dunkirk.

"He worked to make himself better," Duprey said. "and it is showing. He came in early every morning for workouts before school. He's a great role model for other kids."

Duprey says that Merlau works hard at everything, on and off the field.

"For him, it's internal motivation," the coach said. "and it starts with his academics."

Merlau has an academic average of 99, is ranked fourth in his class, is active in the National Honor Society and is the President of the Future Farmers of America.

"He's looking at attending Ivy League and Patriot League schools," Duprey said. "His family owns a dairy farm and, I can tell you, they work hard."

Merlau says that

"We have 300 cows," he said. "My dad lets me play football but, in the summer I'm up milking at 7 am and then mowing hay all afternoon."

When it's not football season, Merlau starts work right after school.

"I come home from school at 2:30 and go out and help in the barn," he said. "There's a lot to do here."

Merlau, who scored a 1760 on his SAT, is being recruited by several colleges to play football. However, he is being selective about which college he will attend.

"I want to play football in college," Merlau said, "but I also want the academic program. I want to major in Engineering, most likely Civil or Structural Engineering. I've already turned down a couple of coaches who had good football programs but didn't have the academics that I want."

Right now, Merlau is very interested in Cornell, Clarkson University in Potsdam and Case Western Reserve in Cleveland. He has already been awarded a Leadership Scholarship to Clarkson, if he chooses to attend the school.

"I was really impressed with Cornell when I went out there for their football camp," Merlau said. "But my real goal for going to school is to learn Engineering. I would rather have a great Engineering program than a great football program."

But while Merlau is searching for the right college, he is also focused on returning to the Carrier Dome in Syracuse at the end of November.

"Things really started out rough in Syracuse," he said, "I would love to go back and play for a state championship. I thought we played pretty well against Dunkirk but I know that we can play even better. We still need to work hard, show up on Friday nights and get a win every week."

2013 FOCUS ON

Williams Leading Nichols

Nichols rebounded from a 49-6 loss to Maple Grove in Week 2 to beat Portville 26-23 last week. It was the first win of the season for the Big Green.

"Winning always make people feel better," coach Colin Bronson said. "We like to win. The kids put in a lot of work for football and winning always makes the work worth it."

The game was also emotional for both teams. Portville was playing just a four days after Westfield junior Damon Janes died after suffering injuries in a game on their field.

"It was emotional," Bronson said. "It was a horrible tragedy. Portville invited us into their prayer circle before the game. We wanted our kids to play with enthusiasm and joy and still maintain respect for the loss that we've all had."

Bronson says that, after opening with losses to Cardinal O'Hara and Maple Grove, it took a few weeks for his young squad to find their way.

"We don't have a ton of experience on the offensive line," he said. "They are all juniors and don't have a lot of game experience. We started to gel against Portville."

Bronson also says his team was able to do things against Portville

"We have a number of weapons with some speed," he said. "I think were able to use our speed later in the game against Portville."

Portville led 23-8 at the half but Nichols scored pair of TDs in the fourth quarter to take a 3-point lead.

The Big Green also had a big defensive stand late in the game as Portville reached the 25-yard line.

"After that, we got a first down to run it out," Brinson said.

Nichols junior Ken Williams played a big role in the Big Green's first win of the year.

Williams also earned a starting role at fullback.

"He is such a good lead blocker," Brinson said. "We'd like to get him the ball more but we lose a great lead blocker when we give him the ball."

Williams (5-10, 200) is an excellent student who has already completed a few AP courses.

"He has a great motor," Brinson said. "He has incredibly good instincts and he is very coachable. He is a quiet, solid, steady leader with an outstanding work ethic."

Ken Williams was a big contributor to the defensive stand.

He finished the game with 11 tackles, 2 for lost yardage. He also recovered a key fumble in the second half.

Williams, a team captain, has started for Nichols since his freshman season.

"He started as linebacker as a freshman," Bronson said, "and he was our leading tackler.

He was our leading tackler as a sophomore, too."

This season,

Are You Game?

Otto Weighs in Again

I saw Otto Slamkowski the other day. He had a scowl and was chomping on his ever-present cigar.

"Hey, Otto. How ya doin'?"

He gave a resigned sigh and shook his head.

"What's the matter, now?" I asked.

"Oh, my wife got a computer a few weeks ago," he said.

"I joined this thing called Facebook... big waste of time."

"Well," I answered, "If that's the case, why did you join?"

"I'm trying to keep up with the Western New York football scene and if you wanna do that nowadays, you have to have a computer and use that internet thing," he said.

I asked him what he was seeing on Facebook.

"Everyone's all up in arms," he said, "because Bennett beat Maryvale 62-7. People are ranting about the game without mentioning the teams involved... like they don't want to embarrass anyone."

"Well," I said. "A lot of people don't like it when a team from a bigger school pounds an opponent like that. They kind of took advantage of a weaker team."

"Oh," Otto said, wrinkling his forehead. "But, isn't that what football teams are supposed to do? Find a weakness in your opponent and take advantage of it?"

"Well..." I started.

"So, if your opponent has a weakness, you're supposed to try not to score? Maybe the coach could tell his running backs to fall down as soon as they get the ball. That might make it easier on the other team."

"I don't think you understand the spirit of high school football," I said. "You are supposed to use good sportsmanship and not humiliate the other guy."

"Who said anything about humiliating?" Otto asked.

"What's humiliating about getting beat as long as you did your best and played your hardest right to the end?"

"I guess I see your point," I conceded. "But some people are saying that Bennett should have stopped scoring because the game was out of hand."

"Out of hand?" Otto asked. "Check the New York State record book, pal. In the old days, there were a lot of games that ended 121-0. I mean, quite a few teams have won games 48-0 this year. Should we punish them for that? Jamestown has scored 50 points on three straight opponents. Should they get a letter of reprimand? And why should Maryvale be embarrassed? They fought hard to the very end. They have nothing to be ashamed of."

"I guess..." I started.

"Maryvale just got caught on a bad night," Otto said.

"What about those other programs?"

"What other programs?" I asked.

"There are a few football programs out there that haven't won more than two games in a season since McKinley was shot in Buffalo," Otto said with disgust. "Their community does not take the sport seriously and all the opposing coaches protect these programs by not scoring on them. For years, these same teams lose 45-0 each and every week. Why not truly roll it up on them and let everyone know how bad they really are?"

"That wouldn't be very nice," I said.

"So what?" Otto laughed. "Football isn't nice. It's a competition. The idea behind a competition is to do your very best. After it's over, shake hands, share some mutual respect and leave the field together as fellow warriors."

"By beating them 121-0?" I asked.

"Sure," he said, "Then these kids might understand how much work they have to do to get better. You see, the really

We make rules so that successful people are as mediocre
as everyone else.

good programs don't just get lucky. Those coaches and their players work their butts off to get good. They work all winter, spring and summer to get ready for the season. They do a ton of fund-raising so they can attend camps and coaching clinics. Their community and their school district makes sure they have all the equipment they need to get bigger, stronger and faster."

"But..." I started.

"Unfortunately, not everybody wants to work hard," Otto said. "Some kids sit around all summer watching cartoons. Did they run the bleachers? Did they lift weights every day? Maybe if they got beat 121-0 every single week, they would understand exactly how much work and effort it takes to be good at football."

"But we're trying to do more than just coach football," I said. "We're trying to teach life's lessons to these kids."

"By not making them feel bad," Otto said, his voice dripping with sarcasm. "Let me tell you, teaching kids that life will take it easy on you when you don't work hard is exactly the WRONG kind of lesson we should be teaching."

"Um..." I said. "Wow... maybe you have a point."

"Of course I have a point," he said, "but it'll never happen. Everyone would rather complain about the successful programs than try to be more like them. We make rules so that strong and successful people are as mediocre as everyone else. That way, nobody gets their feelings hurt."

"It's the American way."
