Student Life

Kenmore East is known for its diversity for clothes, classes, clubs, and even lockers. Take a peak at how creative and original students can be when it comes to their lockers. Some lockers were unfortunately damaged by the graffiti from previous alumni of Kenmore East, but we make due with what we have. Traditional magazine clippings, pictures, mirrors, magnets, dry erase boards, and GINO'S MAGNETS can all be found in these lockers.

Look at all of those creative lockers!
There are many people at KE that decorate their lockers,
and we are showing
them off!

OUR LAST YEAR

By Geoffrey Engel

It's our last year.
We may act tough,
But we all know it's tearing us apart.

The memories,
We love them like a friend,
Yet they're the reason we cry.
They'll make us smile,
Someday.
But for now,
We can't seem to avoid the quiver in our lips.

There are a few of us
Who can't wait to leave.
Those are the ones that are most torn.

To some of us this is the end,
But for all of us this is just the beginning.
The beginning of a new chapter in our lives.

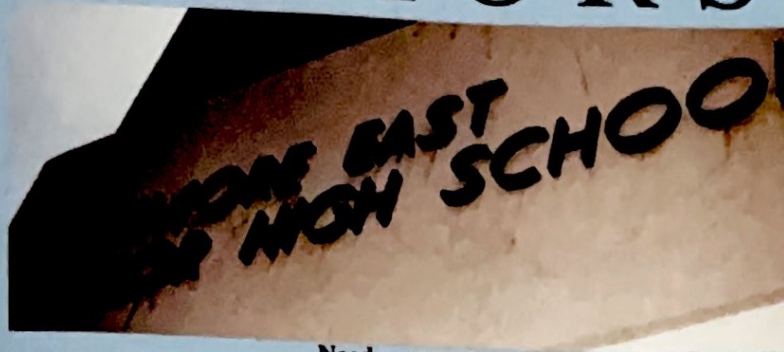

We'll all try to ease the pain,
That's only natural.
We might tell ourselves,
"Oh, I'll forget them in a few months,"
But we know we're lying.

Some of us will try our hardest to believe
That we got the most out of these years.
And for some of us,
That will be lying, too.

At the beginning of the tennis season, Mr. Coates bet the girls that they couldn't pull off a 16-0 season. If they did, he'd let them shave his head. The girls ran miles, jumped hurdles, and in the end won all 16 matches and the NFL championship for the second straight year. Eileen Bordonaro and Nell Aronoff at 1st doubles, Amanda Herberger and Rachael Lesniewski at 2nd doubles, and Cindy Trometer at 2nd singles also had perfect match records individually. The team sent five players to sectionals, the most in the team's history. The girls have not lost in 40 straight matches and counting and are looking forward to next season with their bald coach.
