Kenmore East Senior High School at its' finest! Take a peak at the school within the time spand of 1962 to the present. School pride was the most common theme throughout the history of Kenmore East. The school's transition is seenlessly depicted in these pages.

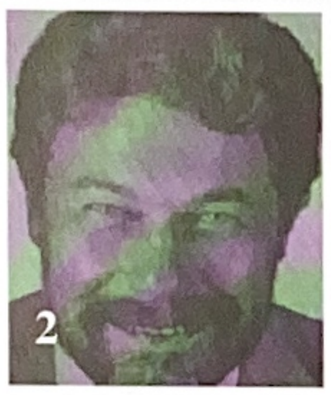

Do you know these faces?

As time has changed these faces certainly have also. But do you know who these teachers are? Here to teach and enlighten students, teachers are the cornerstone of our knowledge. Without them we would be nowhere! So look, listen, learn, and appreciate them.

This year Kenmore East has seen a lot of faces come and go. But we will always remember the good times, right?! Look through the halls and remember all the fun that you shared as you once passed on to your next class. You will never forget the parties, games, and proms. High school does not last for that long, so take advantage of it now! Make the years last a lifetime!

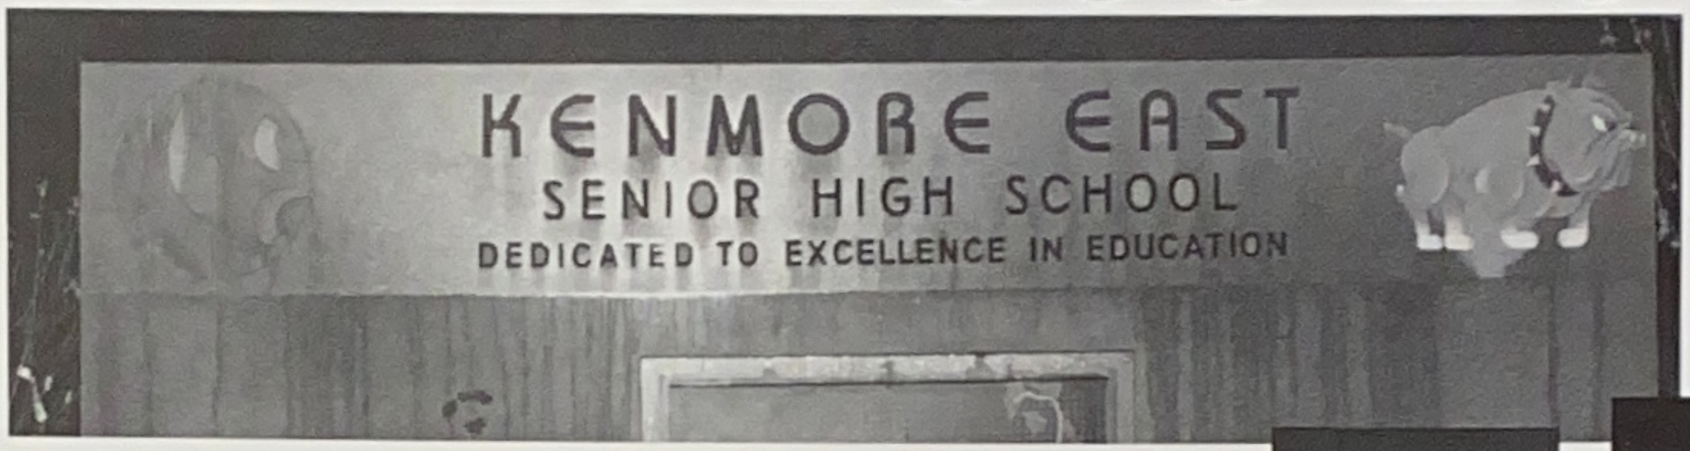

PANT PANT "What!?!?!"

Rainy days and gray skys! Boo hoo.

IS YEAR 2000-2001

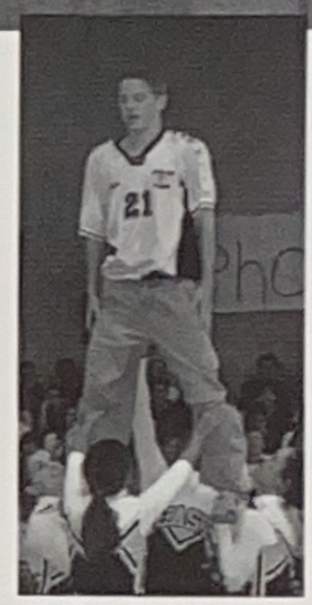

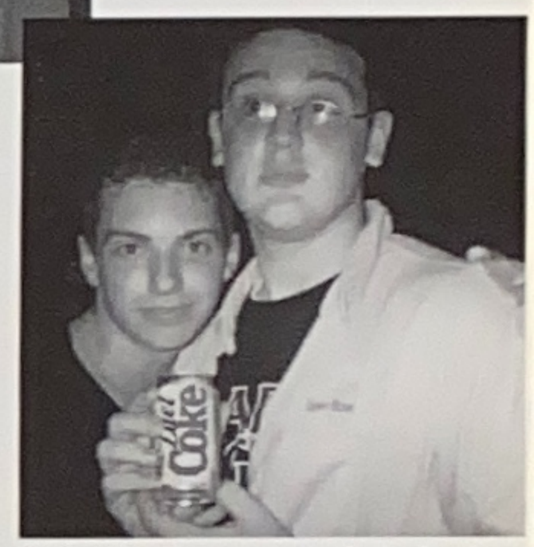

BURN BABY BURN!

Just hangin out and making stupid faces is common here at Kenmore East. Whether it be the hallway, the bathrooms, the lunchroom, or the classroom nothing can stop students from lounging around. SMILE HERE COMES THE CAMERA!

KENMORE EAST

In the beginning
We were insecure and alone
Lost in a new world
Teeming with strangers.

Instinct caused us to reach out
Grasping for safety and companionship,
Hands touched and friendships formed,
And those grew and flowered.

Together we built the years
With patience, care, and love;
Our lives interwined and
In each other, we found ourselves.

Together in strength we survived;
Overcoming fears, pain, and loss,
We strove to attain our goals.

Finally we stood united
Atop the summit
Facing our separate futures...

Lauren Wozniak

I can write the saddest poem of all tonight.

Write, for instance: “The night is full of stars, and the stars, blue, shiver in the distance.”

The night wind whirls in the sky and sings.

I can write the saddest poem tonight.
I loved them, and sometimes they loved me too.

I can write the saddest poem of all tonight.
To think I don’t have them. To feel that I lost them.

To hear the immense night, more immense without them.
And the poem falls to the soul as dew to grass.

As if to bring them near, my eyes search for them.
The night is full of stars and they are not with me.

That’s all. Far away, someone sings. Far away.
My soul is lost without them.

As if to bring them near, my eyes search for them.
My heart searches for them and they are not with me.

The same night that whitens the same trees
We, we who were and now--we are the same no longer.

I no longer love them, true, but perhaps I love them both.
Love is so short and oblivian so long.

Because on nights like this I held them in my arms,
my soul is lost without them.

Although this may be the last pain they cause me,
and this may be the last poem I write for them.

Jalana Palma

1984-2000

As we lost a daughter, you lost a friend.
Those who knew her realize how special she was to the end
Whether talking and laughing in the cafeteria line,
or griping and smiling like she did most of the time.
Her personality attracted you in such a way that she always took the time to hear what you had to say.
If we weigh the accomplishments in life by the people we touch,
God will need a calculator because Jalana touched much.
As our Hearts are full of sorrow,
We need to move on and fulfill our dreams of tomorrow.
We will pray all her classmates will accomplish their goals and you will keep Jalana's memory alive in your souls.

Matt Brown

1985-2000

"All I know is that I will always remember the boy with the green Miami Dolphins hat pointed to the side. I will remember Matt Brown forever."

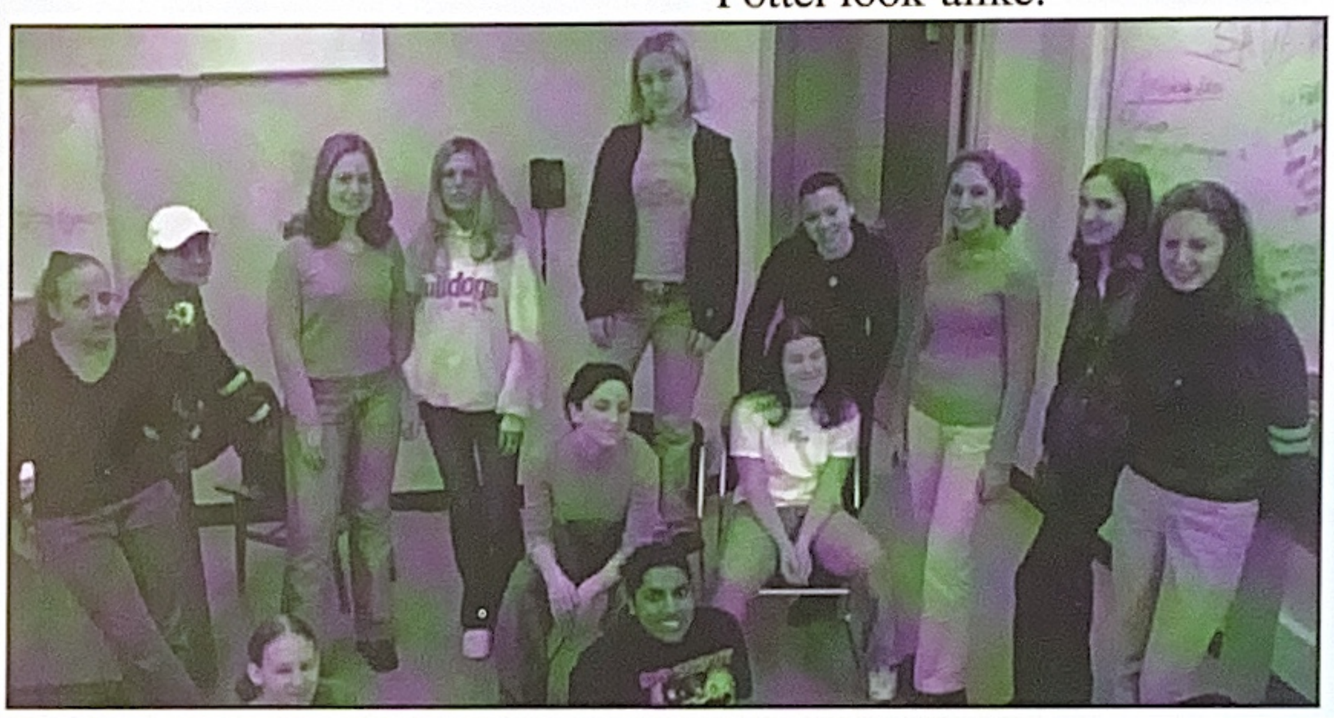

Matt was a member of the Kenmore East community from 1999-2000. He will be greatly missed.
