Q2MgO

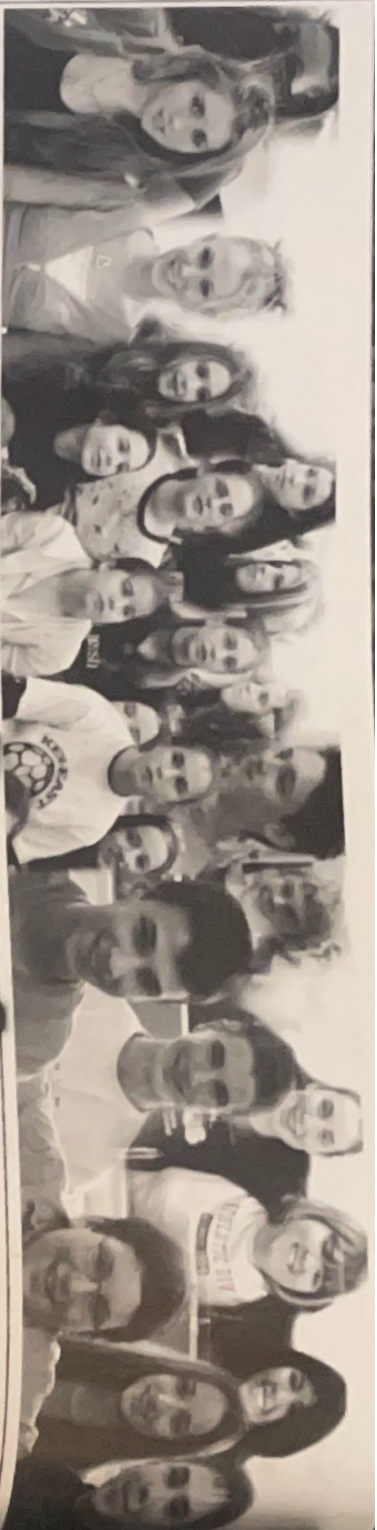

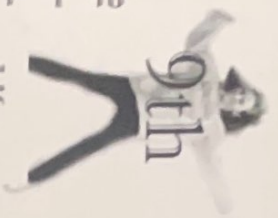

now I know that's all I can say. Seemingly elementary and typical for a yearbook member or whatever you might want to call it. But it really went by fast! As much as you are worried you are never prepared. I was just yesterday X seems like a Freshman worried about his first English. I will say in some ways my influence for me you gave me confidence in my writing and my writing not writing that used manufactured you gave me confidence to stand for what I believe for every opportunity I remember being completely amazed by your teaching methods and in some ways I still am crazy now you get through several English 30 books! That you do the freedom it gives me is most beautiful. You opened doors for me, challenged me, and taught me where I'm at. All I can really say is thank you. You'll never know the impact you have had on me! It's not over! Call me back! I prefer. He'll not dare let me up. You promised you would write me a book and I'm going to not forget that. Your little complex won't know a very interesting person if you're not good. I know we've slipped on you but you know it's all separation for writing extreme things for every short story assignment. Some of your famous words... "body ruled". "That's the worst thing in the world being heard and not understood!" You said you fear you'll never be able to get your words as wisdom and the lessons learned over the years and I acknowledge getting need making and poeticistic as well as up on shock... mm mhm! Bush goes to England to see the Queen and shows Bush her intelligence test for the government in Great Britain she uses Tony Blair as an example. She asked him one question: "If your parents were a bird and it's not your brother and it's not your sister who is it?" He answered simply "me" Bush amazed came home and asked again "Is not your sister who is it?" he answered "Bush he would have a big meeting and find the answer, yes, and before he answered he told Bush he would have a kid and it's not your sister and it's yourself and he answered "no" Bush he would have a kid and it's not your sister and it's not your brother who is it?" he answered simply "me" So Rose went back to Bush and said "I've got the answer..." it's "The Chairman" Bush quickly responds "No it's Tony Blair" (He takes it like Bush but it's a joke). You told Henderson call him ya as my teacher (but you better stay in so don't forget to look and all e-mail to me) Cell: 512-680-0000 @ yahoo.com text: 512-680-0000 + HE Christina O'Kuma Remarks 3:12 Remains 6:10 Hebrews 11:1 Psalm 138:5 Jeremiah 33:3

love you.

Hey Man,

Sure is a shame that the talent show gig didn't work out. Well it sure been pretty cool. Well it sure was refreshing to have a teacher who could get things done w/o being a stiff. Thanks for being cool. Not really sure what's gonna happen for me next year or any year after that, but thanks for your advice. You better smoke those bastards at Spectrum! I'll be around. - Dave -

P.S. You may teach english for a living, but you're still a rocker at heart,

Mr. Managan -

You don't know how glad that I am that you were finally my teacher my Senior year. I heard so many great things about you from Tara and Annette and they really proved to be true this year. I really enjoyed writing in your english class this year, you showed me the potential in my writing that I never realized that I had. You are a really sweet teacher and an amazing ~~person~~ as well. Your genuine personality made me laugh and smile in your english class everyday and I am glad that I was able to talk to you when I needed too (Larry dropping out)... you were always there to listen Managan. You were definitely one of the best teachers that I came up to and thank again for all that you have done for me...

especially putting up with Dave + I

Hanagan -
 Being in your class was always a good time. Sophomore year when I almost convinced you to show us that hard - huh? eh? year you remember the things I'll miss from this out of all I'll miss you the most. Maybe see you place - Steve Scarfello and the Seriously are probably the best teacher in this school. Next year is going to be so weird w/out a nice easy 4th period class. I was so much whenever I had a problem w/ something I knew you would always listen to me, no matter how stupid it was! Thank you Lola! Thanks for coming to everything I played & taking pictures of everyone! hana - I'll never forget the time when you flipped out on the whole class all b/c of me! All I wanted was the freakin' cheerleaders separated. Hahaha. Well I enjoyed every bit of yearbook w/ you!!
 You really made my day so much better!
 Thanks for putting up with all my snit.
 You're such a funny guy!!! & I will miss you so much! & I will def. come back to visit you next year. & maybe come when we play soccer. I'll
 -Lana - Lola

Hanagan,
 where do I start? you were my English teacher freshman and sophomore year (I was really lucky) as well as my yearbook teacher sophomore year. When I junior year, you were only my yearbook teacher every other day (I missed you), and more this year, you're my yearbook teacher.
 I remember being as shy freshman year and now I guess I spend my month too much at times. I'm really unsure where I'm going with this. I guess what I'm really getting at is to simply thank you. You really don't know how much you've impacted me over the past few years.
 You're not only been a teacher, but you've also been a friend. I feel so comfortable telling you things and asking for advice. I truly believe you've helped me open up and become who I am. You've also helped me to become a better writer and have some skills with computers. You've really made me see things in a different light. I cannot thank you enough for simply being there. I will miss you so, so much next year, however, I'll be waiting since I'm staying local. Thank you! I appreciate all you've done. -Tara O'Shady

Mr. Hanagan -

that sounds weird b/c I never ever call you that. So, I've known you since my freshman year and 4 years have passed and you are still my far my most favorite teacher. Thank for letting me get away with practically murder all of those times. I honestly ran all over you, and that's why you are the coolest. ~~and~~ NO, I'm just kidding, I really do respect you and I am going to miss you tons. ~~It's~~ It's going to be so weird in college knowing that you aren't going to be there if I'm late and I run to you and need a pass. Or just some advice I know you are always looking out for me. Thank for being so interested and enthused about all of my soccer stories. And I will never forget the time that you called me well ... we will just say that I was something bad. hah! Thank for all the letters of recommendation and everything else you did for me these past years. I'd be being apart of your classes and torture that I am sorry for all the stress and torture that I have put you through, but you know most of it was pretty damn hilarious. YOU KNOW IT! I miss you so much. And I will try to come visit you next year. Don't let anyone else take over the roll of your favorite student b/c it, I wish you were my teacher no one can compete with me! just kidding! well miss you already! Thank again!

Always,

~ Courtney ~

Hanagan -

even though I only really knew you for a year, it was made a really big difference on the way that I look at english, photo stuff, and life in general. ~~My~~ Mostly due to your class, I learned that I don't need to write in some strict format where every paper looks exactly the same. I almost wish that I could spend the rest of the year in class rather than in the library because it was amusing to hear some of the ridiculous things in class. But there's nothing to do about that now, at least I read a book and got used to college style writing. But enough school stuff. It's been proven to me that you are as cool as a person that Tara has been describing for the past 4 years. The way that you approach everything with enthusiasm and support is admirable and changed the way I look at a lot of things. on yeah - I don't think we ever told you, but jnette and I wanted to apologize (a lot) for the way people treated you in class even after you band our backwards for them to ensure they succeed. So I guess that's next year, when I'm sitting in an English lecture hall w/ some profs from Tahiti who can't speak english, I'll miss you.

P.S. Thank you for all of the advice
