The stress and anxiety he feels when he plays, the fear of failing, the fear of being embarrassed, the fear of being physically hurt, all the symptoms of his position, in constant ebb and flow, but never disappearing. As we grow up, we learn that even the one person that wasn't supposed to ever let you down probably will. You'll fight with your best friend. You'll blame a new love for things an old one did. You'll cry because time is passing too fast and you'll even-

Four years ago we started into high school, needing to do well to find out who we really are, to find a best friend. We spend our first year for the first time, though about how great it was to finally be in high school. Four years ago we met our best friend, and had a crush on a cute older woman. There's a big world out there. Bigger than prom, and bigger than high school. It won't matter if you were the prom queen or the quarterback of the football team or the biggest nerd. Find out who you are and try not to be afraid of it. The terror is to wake up one morning and discover that your high school class is running the country. One day that will be us.

To the class of 2007!

"Lately I've been seeing it differently. Now I think moral fiber is about finding that one thing you really care about. That one special thing that means more to you than anything else in the world. And when you find her, you fight for her. You risk it all, you put her in front of everything, your life, all of it. And maybe the stuff you do to help her isn't so clean. You know what? It doesn't matter. Because in your heart you know that the juice is worth the squeeze. That's what moral fiber's all about."

As we grow up you'll hate your heart broken and you'll break others' hearts. You'll fight with your best friend or maybe even fall in love with them, and you'll cry because time is flying by. So take too many pictures, laugh too much, forgive freely, and love fully you've never been hurt. Life comes with no guarantees, no time-outs, no second chances. You just have to live life to the fullest, tell someone what they mean to you and tell someone off, speak out, dance in the pouring rain, hold someone's hand, comfort a friend, fall asleep watching the sun come up, stay up late, be a flirt, and smile until your face hurts.
