With no seniors on the team they all had to step up. The leadership of Coach Marquardt was crucial in the "Bowldog's" success.

SISTER ACT

Sister Act is a comedy based off the 1992 film. The story follows Delores Van Cartier (Alyssa Germano), after she witnesses a murder. In order to keep her protected until the court date, she is placed in a convent. Under the rigid instruction of Mother Superior (Gracelyn Rife), Delores uses her vocal talent and disco moves to inspire the choir. In her efforts, she not only breathes new life into the church, but also the community. This unintentionally leads the gang straight to her. But, she quickly finds herself protected by the power of her sisterhood, and finds the light within.

"Alrighty... What I would say is that doing the musicals has been a big part of my high school experience. I could have never done it without my friends, family, and everyone who has been supporting me all these years.
