principal's message

You are living in a fascinating age of tremendous progress; you are growing up in a turbulent and mobile society; you are preparing to live and to work in a changing community. No one is sure or can conjecture what demands, what challenges, or what understandings the fantastic world of tomorrow will require. But you must be ready.

Since the future is unknown and indefinite, you must invest a large amount of time in education. Preparation should have breadth and depth. Education and training are guides upon which you can rely. For in countries which have kept pace and participated in the technological advances already made, the youth have been given the opportunities of knowledge and truth through education. We as a nation cannot relax, stop, or rest on our previous achievements. We must continue to provide quality education for you young people. In return we are looking to you as a means to finish the things already started, and to define new problems and concepts to be solved by those who follow.

It is easy to understand that you may look upon an unknown future with anxiety and hesitation. It is brighter, however, than it may appear at the first consideration. First, all young people of today face this same uncertainty. Those who are best prepared, those who are willing to compete by working hard, and those who can adapt to the new demands will succeed. Second, remember that it has always been this way. Your fathers and your forefathers before them also faced an uncertain future. That terrible future of theirs does not seem so awesome now when they look at it as the reality of today. The only difference is that their future of yesterday is now known.

This book is a one-year history of your school and of your school life. It portrays many of the opportunities available at Kenmore East. I am sure that you will be reminded of many happy times and friendships made during the school year 1964-65. The Spectrum will also bring back to your memory some day the troublesome problems and anxious anticipations that concerned you in school. At the end of this year, however, as you look at this book, they will have grown much smaller than they seemed during the school year; in fact, in many instances, they will no longer appear as problems.

So face your unknown future with courage and without hesitation. Kenmore East has done its best to prepare you. When the future becomes today, you will again realize that the problems you faced, like those of your school days, will have been minimized or will have entirely disappeared.

in memoriam

Last October Kenmore East lost one of its most loyal and trusted friends, Mr. Charles Rogers. Mr. Rogers had been in the Kenmore School System for over twenty-five years and worked in our guidance department since the founding of the school seven years ago. His dedication and understanding will long be remembered by the countless students he has helped.

In September, 1964 Miss Barbara Camardella, a physical education teacher at Kenmore East, passed away at her New York home. Miss Camardella's death is a great loss to all who knew her and had worked with her during her unfortunately brief period at East. She will be remembered for her enthusiasm and friendliness to students and fellow faculty members.

class bistory

"Go Bulldogs Go . . . Go Bulldogs Go" . . . "Buy the Eastonian Friday . . . only a dime" . . . "Math club . . . Biology club . . . meet tonight."

1962: Movement abounds as the class of 1965 enters Kenmore East . . . new classes, new activities, new problems . . . hmm, where's room 321? . . . Soon we adjust to the climate; we assume our place in the stream of activity . . .

We participate in many school activities . . . Four boys, under a new amendment, become our class officers . . . John Cummings is president . . . Sophomores write for the Eastonian . . . Varsity and j.v. athletes from our class bring honor to the school . . . We join the various school clubs . . . "The Wide World," our Sophomore Show, exhibits the talent in our class . . . and who can ever forget the Swamp Lake Company? . . . we are an integral part of the school . . .

1963: We advance one level to juniors . . . harder schedules, but we become more active in school organizations . . . New athletic captains come from our class . . . eight juniors are inducted into the National Honor Society . . . four girls are named A.F.S. Finalists . . . many of us take examinations such as the P.S.A.T., National Merit, and S.A.T. . . . The class scores two more successes . . . the Junior Carnival and "Carousel," our junior prom . . . New Eastonian and Spectrum editors are chosen . . . Bill Stewart wins Student Forum presidency . . . The class is preparing for its year as school leaders

September 1964: Our senior year . . . We lead the clubs and teams . . . we think ahead to college or other plans . . . Bob Carson joins our class as our A.F.S. student . . . The football team beat West on Oct. 26 . . . cross country records are set . . . Our activities are sadly interrupted by the death of Mr. Charles Rogers, a guidance counselor, a great friend

The year progresses . . . class movement increases . . . "The American Scene Magazine" and "You Can't Take it With You" continue the class's tradition of success . . . Class placement is announced . . . the National Honor Society inducts 45 more seniors . . . Ten classmen travel to Toronto for the Earl Haig exchange and ten Canadians visit Kenmore East . . . The basketball team is a title contender . . . The other teams achieve fine records . . . The swimming scoreboard is presented to the school . . .

The movement has moved swiftly . . . The closing events are now approaching . . . Soon, our careers at East will be terminated . . .

"Assembly schedule today" . . . "Key Club meets in the West Cafeteria" . . . May I have a library pass?

The movement will continue next year, without the class of 1965 . . . Somehow, though, we like to think that it won't quite be the same.

class will

We, the class of 1965, being of sound mind and body, do solemnly bequeath:

Paul Courter and Mark Blackmore leave their guns loaded.

Debby Hooper leaves her sun (lamp) burn.

Bill Bryndle wills his verbose answers to Miss O'Brian. Brenda Cugini wills her charm and personality to next year's Blue-Gold Queen.

Phil Ditch leaves a perfect passing record.

Pam Decker wills her layouts to next year's Spectrum Staff.

Dave Pollard, Dick Duquin, Bob Duvall, and John Duke leave Miss Easterbrook with many happy memories.

Barry Sharcot leaves counting "To Be Sure's."

Linda Potter divides her many talents among any needy juniors.

Fred Brewer wills his golf clubs to next year's Arnold Palmer.

Kathy Rumrich, Jane Freer, and Tom Assenza leave for Kenmore East's "suburb," Grand Island.

Pat Dill leaves with a dent in her car.

Jim Grifasi wills his publicity announcements to next year's Jonathan Winters.

Bill Hull leaves one uncooked steak at Mr. Blake's farm.

Carol Horba leaves our Blue Ribbon to the new Eastonian Editors.

John Potaczala leaves at noon.

Mark Farrell wills the Debate Team to next year's president.

Judy Fishman leaves her school spirit as an example to all underclassmen.

Joe DiSarno leaves to play basketball behind Brighton School.

Mason Holmes wills his unbalanced books to next year's Spectrum Business Editor.

Molly Peacock leaves Miss O'Brian with a knowledge of seniors' sophistication.

Jim Graff leaves many records to be broken.

Eric Traub wills his many talents to next year's music man.

Gladys Bowman wills her soft voice to anyone who talks too loud.

Frank Berger and John Arle leave their physics labs finished—but not necessarily correct.

Barb Thirtle wills "Zed" to Mr. Moore.

Paul Gauthier leaves the A. V. Club without a D. J. for record hops.

Jackie Voght, Tom Bradley, and Mike Guggemos depart wondering what Calculus is all about.

Mary Ellen and John Mansell, and Sue and Bob Pankhurst leave as brother and sister.

John Cummings wills his leadership abilities to next year's president.

Art Ziller leaves arguing with anyone he can find.

Sue Gray wills her charm and vivacity to any junior girl.

Ron Astridge leaves, still insisting that his catch was within the end zone.

Sal Lo Faso wills his stories to next year's Aesop.

Leslie Smith leaves for the nearest swimming pool.

Joe Tuk leaves after Dick Barnaby, who leaves after Dave Bergenstock, who leaves after John Etienne, who leaves as fast as he can.

Norm Kumm wrestles his way out.

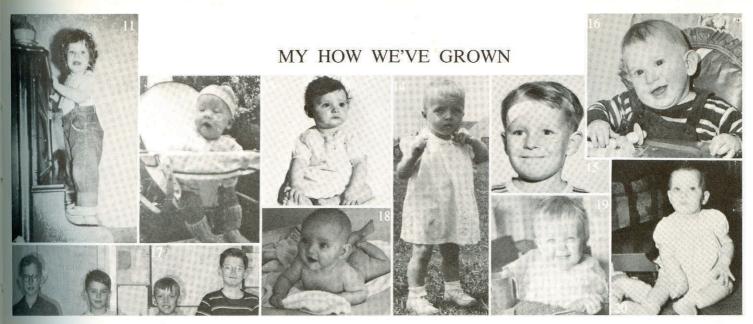

Betty Parker wills the Blue-Gold Weekend to future chairmen.

Tom Carroll leaves his Lit. class amazed—if not convinced.

Dave Ross wills his wit to any serious junior.

Tim Armstrong leaves his three year major with Mr. Jack.

Anna Rekawek leaves for more success at Mt. Holyoke.

see page 158

Dave Sherk wills his clipboard to a future coach.

Bob Carson leaves the Class of 1965 with memories of many pleasant experiences.

Ron Mansfield wills his position on the Noonday Announcements to Brian.

Gayle Carroll, Ellen Cronk, and Lynne Deuschle leave wondering what PSSC really means.

Bill Stewart wills his rewarding experiences to next year's Student Forum President.

Larry De Young leaves his fan club.

Stephanie Albrecht leaves with a greatly increased interest in photography.

Mike McKay wills his bony elbows to a junior girl.

Ron Lorton bequeaths his intellectualism to next year's valedictorian.

Kathy Jones, Jane Freer, and Linda Hall leave the scheduling to next year's class editors.

Dave Colby has no time to leave anything.

Mike Groden reluctantly leaves the Eastonian Humor Department to next year's editor.

Marg Hedrick leaves with John.

Steve Paxhia wills his spotting ability to Mr. Milligan.

Henly Hill leaves his pixie costume.

Bonnie McKinney wills her outgoing personality to any reserved underclassmen.

Brad Herman leaves his track shoes and trumpet to next year's musical athlete.

Jeff Girard leaves for a hamburger at Carrol's.

Hugh Robertson wills his folk songs to future class shows.

Phyllis Stricker and Linda Leuthner leave, still "Enjoying Being a Girl."

Kathy Tanner leaves with fond memories of all-evening Eastonian meetings.

Gail Simon leaves her cheerleading outfit.

Jon Nordvik leaves his little animals in the Biology lab.

Bob Tank takes everything with him.

Tom Seilheimer departs with all his chevrons on his helmet.

Dianne Prudhomme leaves Mr. Walter with some harrowing memories.

Russ Gullo, Gene De Fabio, Dan Davenport, and Mac Martin try to leave together.

Terry Hogg wills his track and football ability to another all-around athlete.

Don Esposito leaves his secretarial experience.

Toni Colan wills her contact lenses to anyone tired of wearing glasses.

Greg Walters leaves to greet bigger and better quarter-backs "Sestak" style.

Marie Antonucci exits for Munchkin-Land.

Jim Clay departs with a promise never to kick a foot-ball barefooted again.

Hank Albro and Bob Kramer leave for the library.

Nancie Werner leaves as an e. e. cummings expert.

Sandee Eiduson wills her positions on the Student Forum to an energetic junior.

Jim Hughes leaves all his girl friends amazed.

Ron Crain wills his cane and knee to Mr. Adams.

Holly Carroll wills her golden locks to a junior girl.

Bob Fugitt leaves several broken golf clubs.

Lynne Barta leaves her athletic skills to anyone desiring a varsity letter.

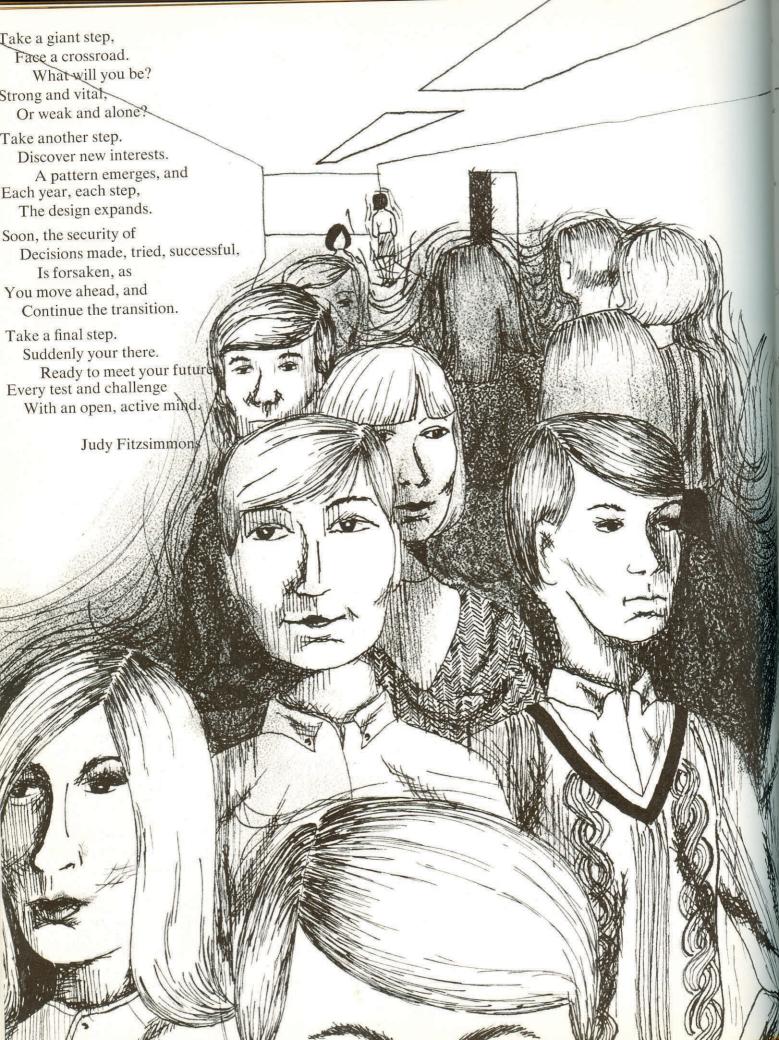

Sandy Young, and Mary Ellen Meaney leave shaving creme on the stage.

Doug Stendahl leaves with his skeleton keys.

Carole Harvie leaves a glow of happiness for any gloomy junior.

Joe Muni wills his athletic ability and leadership to next year's captains.

The Class of 1965 leaves Kenmore East.

The Student Forum, under President Bill Stewart, represented the students, acted as an intermediary between them and the administration, and promoted many activities including the Blue-Gold Weekend, the United Fund Dance, The Winter Nocturne, Winter Carnival, "The Sound of Music," and the Goodwill Drive. The K.E.S.H. Forum also initiated basketball season tickets and "School Spirit Week!"

Representatives were elected in homerooms, and the cabinet was selected by the president. Everyone involved did a fine job.

bonor society

The annual induction ceremony for the Honor Society took place during an impressive tapping assembly in December, 1964. At this ceremony members from the top fifteen per cent of their class were chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Soon after the induction, officers were selected, and this group began their activities which included bake sales, dances, and the sponsoring of the paperback book store. The money received from these events was used to sponsor the Honor Society Banquet which was held in April. Miss Krenning is the advisor of this organization.

American field service

Robert Carson has been our A.F.S. foreign exchange student this past year. Bob is 17 years old and comes from Quezon City in the Phillipines. After returning home, Bob plans to enter the University of the Phillipines where he will study medicine. In addition to playing Boris Kolenkhov, the Russian dance instructor, in the Senior Play, Bob has contributed much to Senior activities. We hope that Bob has enjoyed his year at Kenmore East as much as all the students have enjoyed working with him and getting to know him better.

Kenmore East's A.F.S. chapter, under the guidance of Miss Planz, is responsible for screening and interviewing candidates for the A.F.S. program. The committee is also responsible for entertaining the exchange student by taking him to places of interest such as plays, concerts, museums, and historical sites.

p. a. staff

"Good afternoon, these are your noon day announcements," is a familiar quotation to all students at Kenmore East. Our P.A. staff ably reports upcoming events, club meetings, minutes from the Student Forum, sports results, plus a variety of other K.E.S.H. activities. The school owes many thanks to this fine staff for helping to keep us informed on school events.

audio-visual club

The audio visual club, under the direction of Mr. Walter, is responsible for helping every assembly, class show, and musical to be a success. This group is responsible for the arrangement of lights, curtains, and microphones. Aside from this duty, the members aid teachers and student groups with audio visual material.

The clacking rhythm of typewriters is heard every Friday after school in Mr. Thayer's room. Students belonging to the personalized typing club learn fundamental typing skills which will aid them in research papers and in college.

Another club in our business department is the bookstore. With the aid of Mr. Charles, paperbacks and review books are purchased and sold to the students at a reasonable cost.

The business club, under the direction of Mr. Thayer, is run like a corporation. Members buy stocks which aid in the purchasing of refreshments sold at athletic events. At the end of the year they receive the money they invested plus interest. The remaining profit is given to the Student Forum.

photography club

This year's publications owe many thanks to the photography club for aiding the various divisions in developing, and enlarging candid shots. Sally Schultz, John Nordvik, and Gerry Schwabel, under the direction of Mr. Izard, learned various developing and camera techniques.

library assistants

Collecting library material, shelving and dispersing books, plus aiding students in finding library materials, are only a few of the jobs required from the library assistants. Under the guidance of Miss Easterbrook and Mrs. Potter, these people help keep the library running smoothly and efficiently. Kenmore East's thanks go to this hard working group.

math club

Under President Bob Corby and advisor Mr. King, the math club studies various divisions of mathematics. Each week one of the members researches a different division and talks to the club on his topic. Two of the topics discussed were, "The Geometry of Color," and "Computors." The members feel that this club offers a fine preparation for college.

Through the Future Nurses and Future Teachers Clubs, interested students are able to familiarize themselves with a better understanding of the nursing and teaching professions.

This year the Future Nurses participated in an interschool convention, and sponsored many bake sales. Their bi-monthly meetings included lectures by persons associated with the medical profession, plus many films.

Some of the highlights of this year for the Future Teachers included the teachers tea, lectures, and the sponsoring of a Christmas party for emotionally disturbed children.

key club

The main objective of the Key Club is service to the student body. A new service offered by the club this year is a hospitality committee. Under this committee transfer students are assigned to a representative who acts as a guide for two days. His job includes helping the new student to become acquainted with others, explaining various functions of the school, and pointing out the social activities offered by K.E.S.H.

In addition, the Key Club is responsible for keeping the K.E. Scrapbook up to date, holiday decorating, and ushering at various events.

yorkers club

Did you know that Town Line New York seceeded from the union along with the South in 1861 and wasn't officially readmitted until 1948? Facts of interest, such as this, are studied by Kenmore East's Yorkers Club. This club, under the direction of Mr. Chotoff, meets to delve into the historical, geographical, and social stratas of the state.

debate club

The topic of this year's debate team was "Resolve that nuclear weapons should be controlled by an international organization." Kenmore East debated this topic with various Kenmore-Tonawanda schools plus other teams outside the immediate area.

On February 6th our team represented K.E.S.H. in Hamilton, Ontario, where they debated on "Do public schools provide an adequate education?"

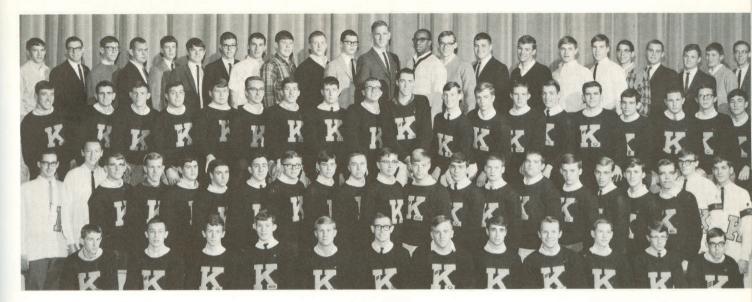

booster club

Under the direction of Mr. King, the booster club enthusiastically supports all athletic events. This group can easily be spotted waving pompons and throwing confetti when our team scores a point. The members also make posters advertising the up-coming athletic events.

Through the combined efforts of Mr. Mosher and Mr. Barrouddi, Kenmore East can be proud of its fine instrumental music department.

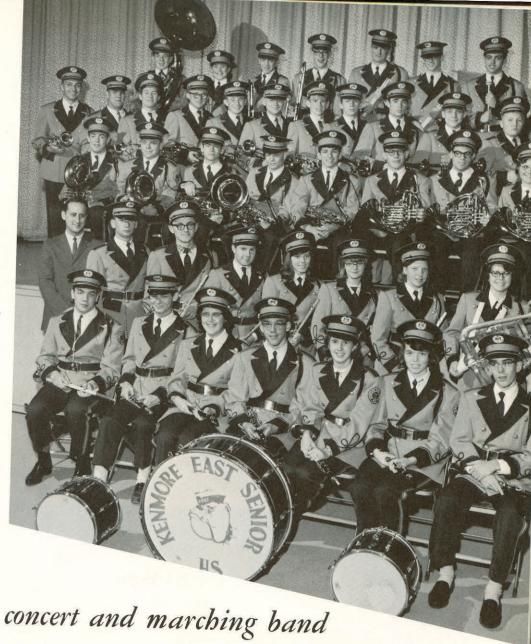

The orchestra and dance band have played at assemblies and P.T.A. programs. This year the dance band, with vocalist Linda Tyrell, studied the styles of various bands including Glenn Miller and Henry Mancini.

The marching band, under head major Bill Hull, was seen during the half time at football games and also marched in the Memorial Day Parade.

It's half time at the football game, and out march the color guard and majorettes preceding the band. This high stepping group works out various routines with rifles and batons which coordinate with the music of the marching band. The color guard consists of Cindy Stefano, Doris Pero, Penny Crewe, Pam Taylor, Diane Hocker, and Phyllis Stricker.

This year the majorettes' routines were worked out to such tunes as "Hello Dolly," "Bill Bailey," and "People." Throughout the year they practice and prepare for competition with other majorette units. Their efforts were appreciated in the Memorial Day Parade.

work-study program

Thirty students leave Kenmore East at noon daily and continue their education! They work in garages, in bakeries, at department stores, in butcher shops, and in many other local businesses. They receive credit for this work toward their graduation and they are paid according to the minimum wage scale. Some students have progressed in jobs to positions of responsibility.

This is our work experience program, a program supervised by Mr. James Williams. The success of the program is largely due to his able leadership and to the very wonderful response on the part of the students enrolled therein.

Because such an auspicious start has been made, the program will be enlarged next year and more of our students will combine work with study as they earn their high school diploma.

varsity football

Crushing tackles, effective blocking, and alert thinking characterized the Big Gold football team. Under Mr. Adams in his freshman year as head coach, the team showed the ability and desire to win. Although plagued by injuries and bad weather, the Bulldogs forged a creditable record. Highlight of the year's campaign was the team's first victory in school history over arch-rival Kenmore West. Dominating the game, East's Bulldogs moved the ball inside the ten yard line several times and climaxed the action with a nine yard scoring run. At the end of the season, captain Greg Walters was named a guard on the all-league team. Six other team members received honorable mention for their outstanding play. Best of Luck goes to captain-elect Bob Rust, and his squad in the coming season.

varsity baseball

The 1964 baseball team will be a yardstick by which future Kenmore East teams may be measured. Coach Marafino's team finished league competitions with 11 wins and only 2 losses, capturing the Niagara Frontier League title. The Bulldogs defeated Amherst in the semi-finals, and turned back Olean in the championship game to clinch the Section VI AAA crown.

Versatility characterized the Big Gold with good pitching, good fielding, brilliant base running, and a team batting average of .288. The '64 team was fast, explosive, and exciting to watch.

junior varsity sports

Spirit, pride, and enthusiasm characterize our junior varsity teams. Pride in accomplishments shows up in many of the records. This year's J.V. football team lost only one game while the basketball team piled up numerous points in the win column. Last year's J.V. baseball team compiled an outstanding record. Swimming and wrestling teams contributed many exciting moments for their faithful followers. With a fighting "bulldog" spirit and plenty of enthusiasm, these "Little Gold" teams met each opponent with force, gave only their best, and upheld the high standards of sportsmanship characteristic of Kenmore East. The outlook is good for "Big Gold" varsity sports, and in future years the victory flag should fly proudly over our school.

Mr. Byrd and Mr. Reuter, J.V. Football Coaches.

girls' sports

The girls' sports program in our school is an extracurricular activity in which many girls participate. In the fall there are intramural teams in field hockey and soccer. Basketball is the favorite winter sport and the honor team plays several area schools. For girls who enjoy swimming, there are synchronized swimming and sophomore, junior, and senior swim teams. Girls from these swimming teams represent East in meets with other local schools. Intramural programs in volleyball, bowling, gymnastics, badminton, and baseball are popular. Officials' Club is a group of girls who referee at the basketball games. Girls who participate in the athletic program belong to the Girls' Athletic Association. These activities, under the guidance of Miss Mackett and Mrs. Wiegand, provide the girls with hours of recreation.
