Lori Robek, Tricia Crangle and Barb Baldinger show off their T.G.I.F. smiles.

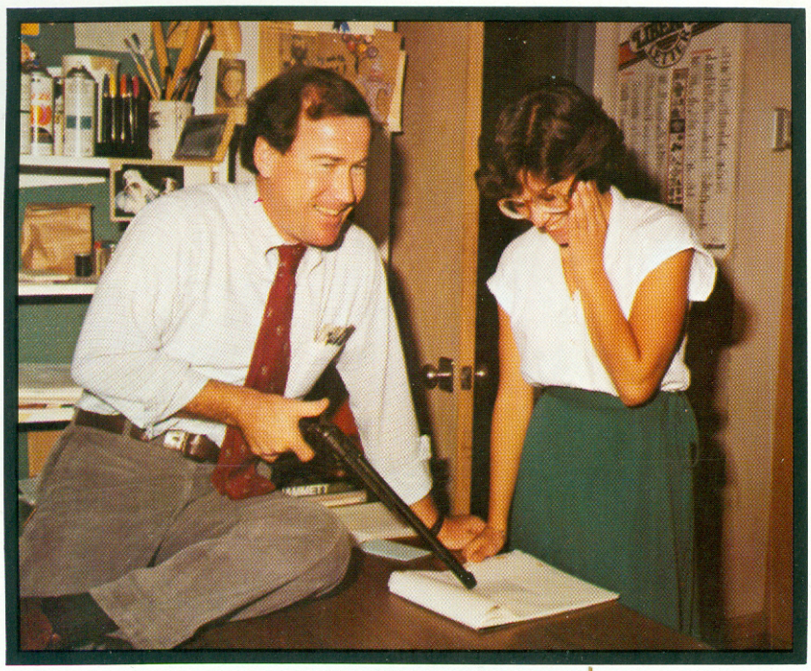

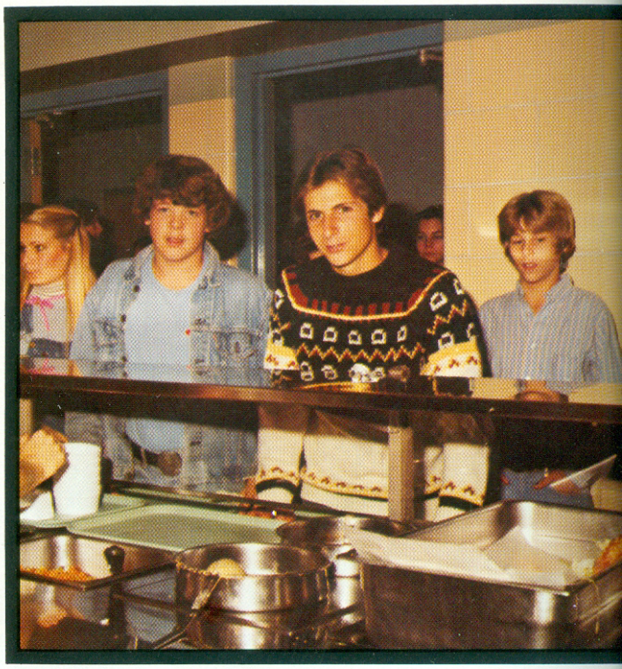

Senior guys seem to get a kick out of lunch.

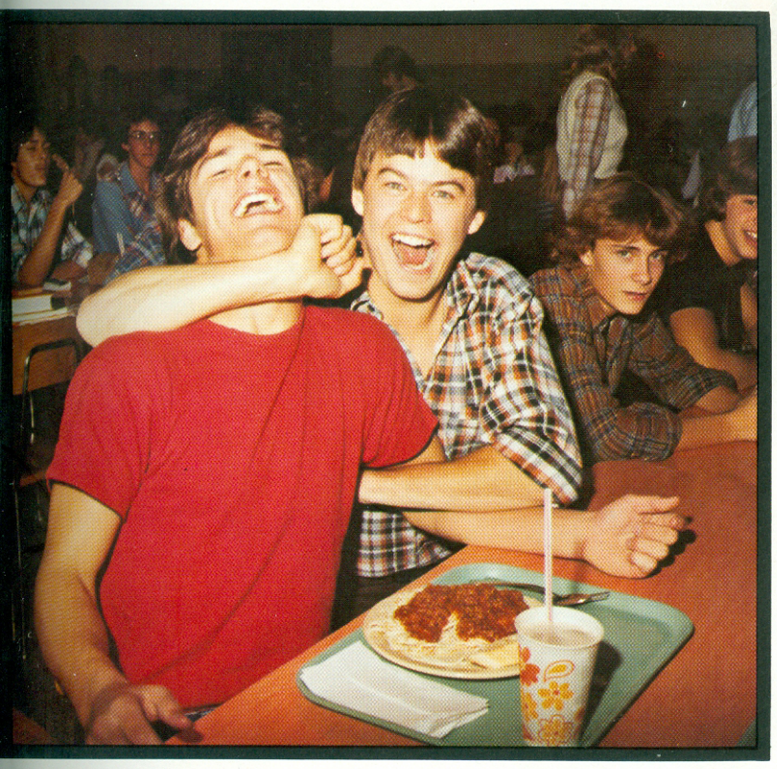

STUDENT LIFE

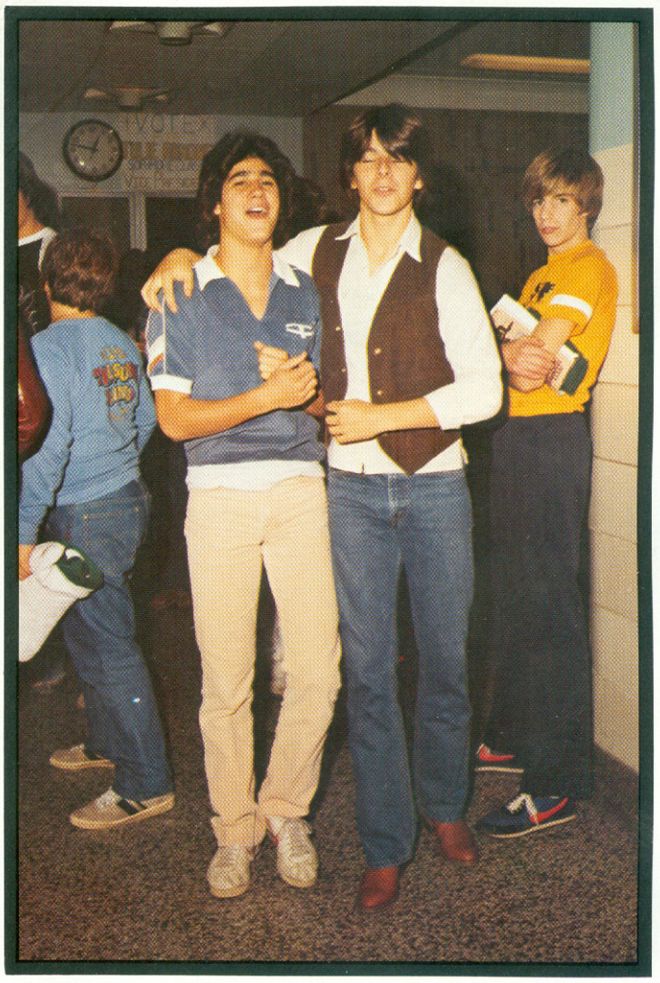

WORK . . .

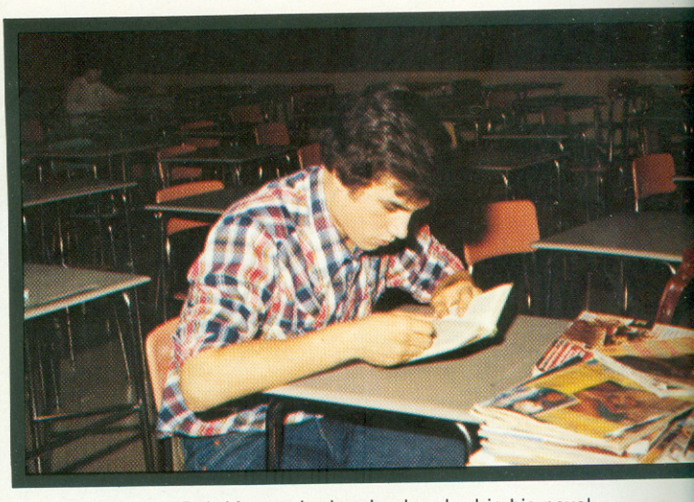

. . . at East involves many different crises during the day. There are the seemingly endless classess: trig, Western Civ., Rudiments, Co-ed square dancing. Studying is another time-consumer and yet one more downfall is the weekly "test day". Each teacher has his favorite and it's always wise to be wary. But kids at East have found some more interesting ways to pass the time . . .

Peter and Barb rehearse their scene for drama

Mark Johnson readies himself for a career in architecture

Bob Meyers is deeply absorbed in his novel

Electric shop requires intense concentration

A new era of secretaries is born

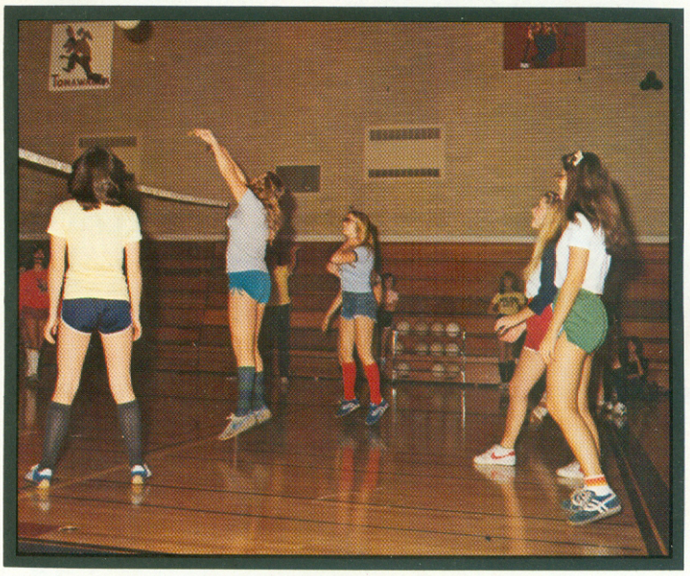

Sue and Beth follow Mr. Baroudi's directions in orchestra

Regi Marsh examines his print in the light

Cheryl Bodewes practices for her days of homemaking

Volleyball sometimes becomes a real workout

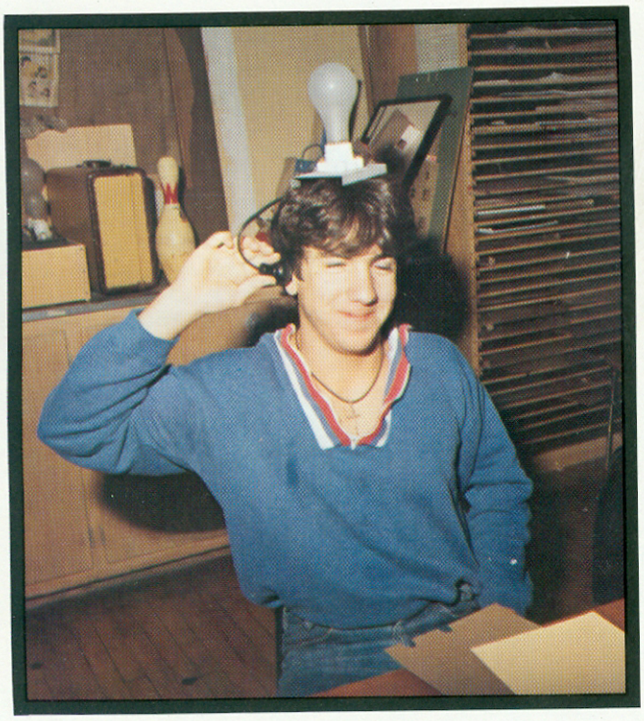

The string section prepares to perform

PLAY . . .

. . . time at East is certainly an important part of each day. Lunchtime and study halls give everyone a relaxing break during the day. Most important, though, are the unplanned special times for jokes and good times with friends. School may have been planned for education, but we know better!

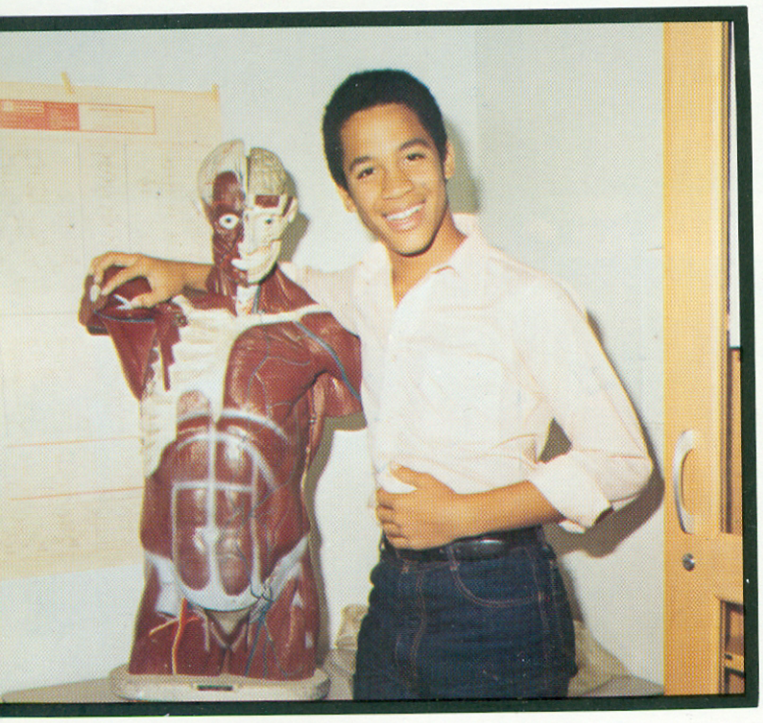

Rick Stoll clowns around as Mark Schack grabs the last pretzel

T. J. Petti smiles as an idea pops into his head

The lav crowd is truly a friendly bunch

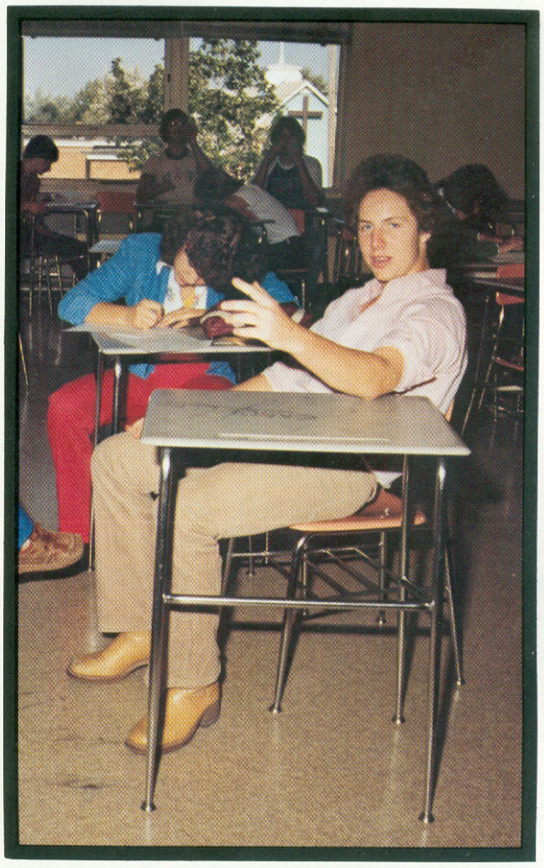

Friends always meet to chat during class

Angela Longo's friend stops in for lunch.

Peter Vogt leers at Mary Kae

Jim Cichowski doesn't seem very interested in study hall

Marty Antholzner watches Dave Schreckenberger dig in

Threesomes are popular in East's halls

DEFEAT . . .

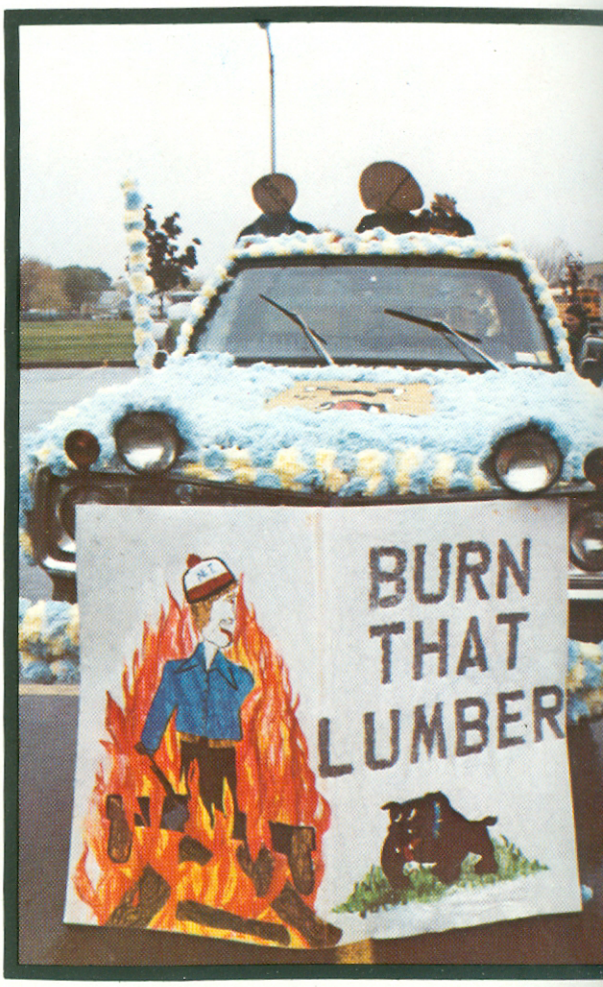

. . . was the name of the game this year on Blue-Gold Weekend. The spirit was high, but our flames just weren't hot enough to burn NT's Lumberjacks. The Bulldogs were defeated by a rainy 13-0. Fortunately, the float competition was a success: The cheerleaders received first place and the junior class won second.

Kathy Sobocinski and Kathy Schwallie light up with spirit

The Bulldogs skirt around their vicious opponents

Unfortunately, East's fire was doused by the rain

The cheerleaders enjoyed bringing the crowd to its feet

The B.G.D.'s are impressed by the excitement

Gregg Firster rallies the crowd at the pep assembly

The Bulldogs capitalize on a fumble

Lisa Coppola displays her bouquet of carnations

The SENIORS get rowdy

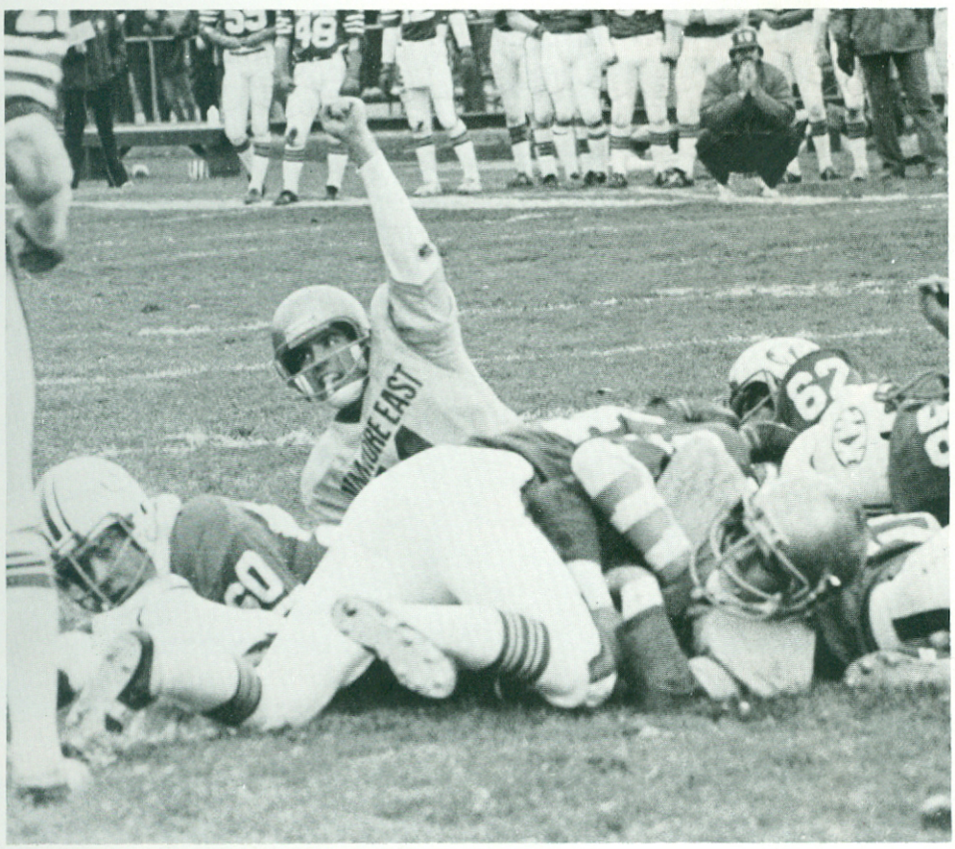

The Blue-Gold Digger's float showed originality

VICTORY . . .

. . . rose at East on Halloween weekend as the Bulldogs accomplished a double win. "Dress-Up Day" preceeded the big game and John Hoar took first place honors as a Trojan. The tough JV team rustled West early Saturday morning with a quick 13 — 0 win. The climax of the day, though, was East's impressive varsity win! Kenmore West offered some resistance but the hard-fought battle was resolved with a Buldog victory.

All the cheerleaders get psyched for East — West

Dave McMahon signals another Bulldog touchdown

Steve Schifferle snags the ball on a long pass

The East band performs during half-time

Doug and Doris are captivated by the game

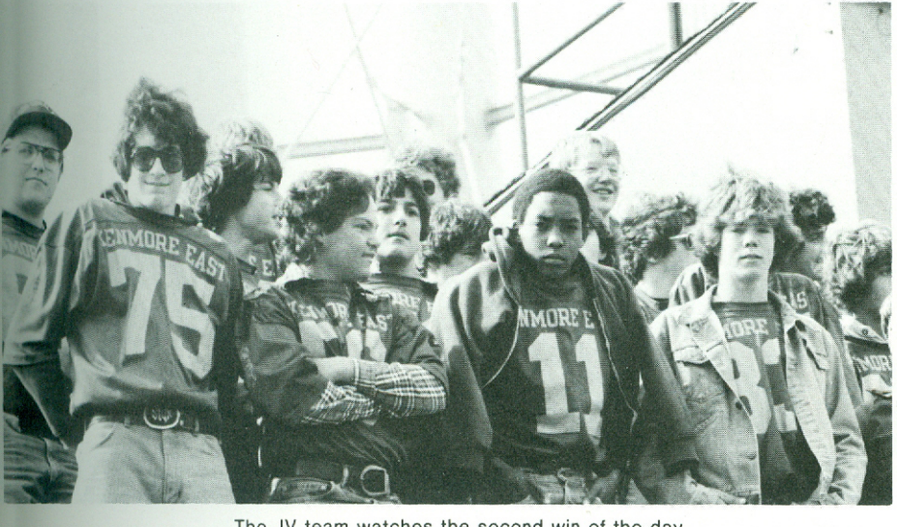

Tom MacLeod is surrounded by mad Blue Devils

The senior rahs are in the middle of things

Linda Schlau gets a kick out of being a BGB

The JV team watches the second win of the day

Fall sports spirit reigns at Ken-East

SENIOR SHOW CLASS OF '81

This year's annual Senior Show combined the many talents of all the students involved. The acts included bands, comedies, singers, and the unforgettable Cut-downs. Class advisors Mr. Iannello and Miss Everett, along with the chaperones, judged the best act. Winning the first prize of $25 was The Blues Brothers Band starring Bill Steggs and Scott Meacham. Runners-up included Devo, Royal Wrestling, and Linda Ronstadt. The seniors' efforts granted them a big head start towards fund-raising for the prom.

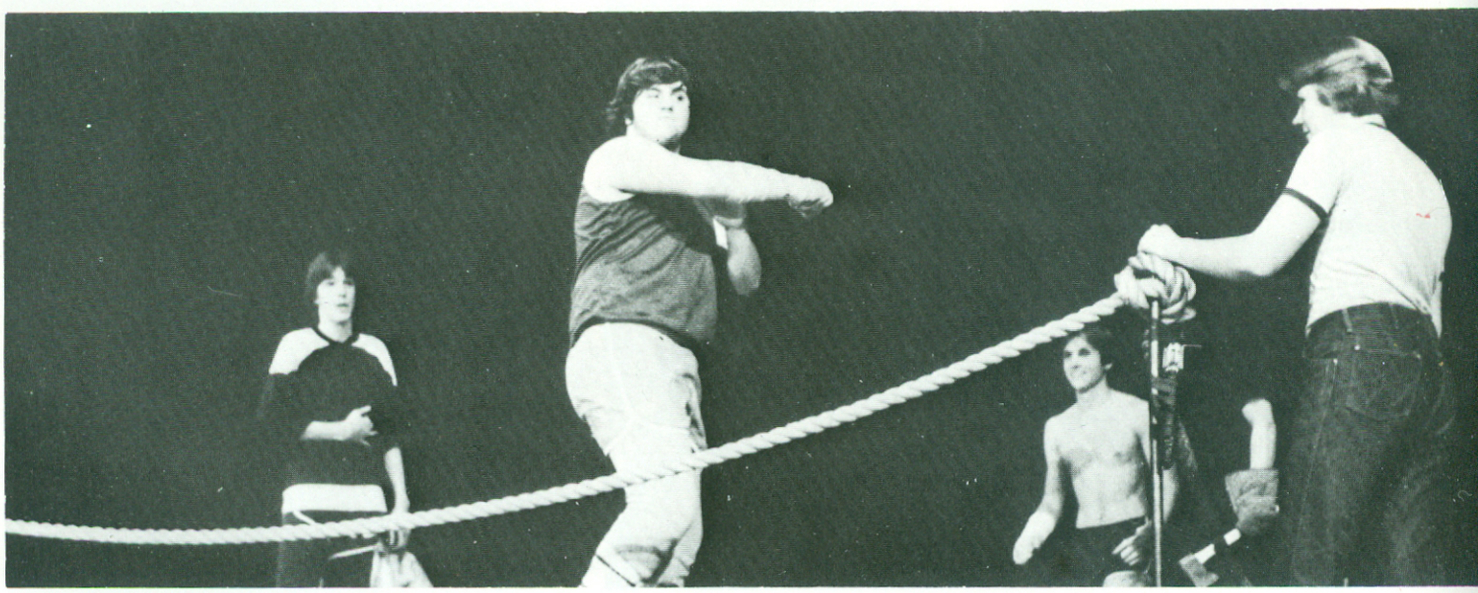

Mary Tulipane tries desperately not to suck her thumb

Lori, Tricia, and Erin get the guys good!

Arlette and Sue harmonize with "Longer"

Mike Milbrand and Ken Pronti advance on Bill Steggs

Claude Imagna and Lisa Coppola add class to the show

Kris Barczak shows her stuff (ing)!

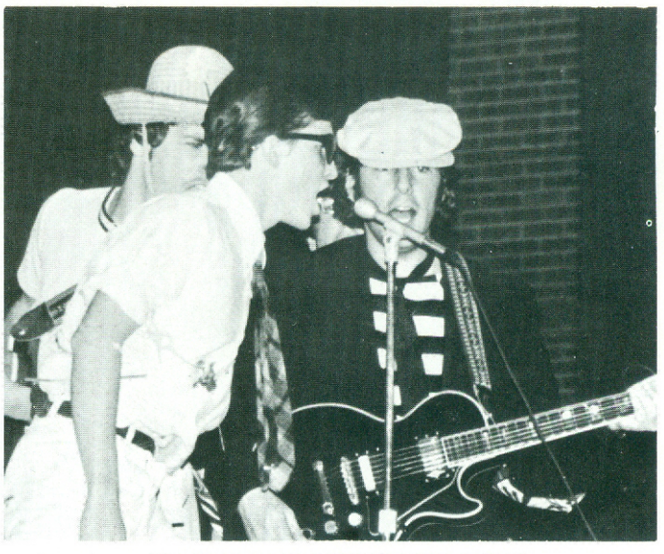

Joliet Jake jams with his band

Cindy Zenosky captivates the audience

Scott Meacham tries to ignore Ken Pronti's antics

The Kentones complain "nothing is fun!"

ARSENIC AND OLD LACE

This year's All-School Play, Arsenic And Old Lace, was presented on November 7th and 8th. The story centerd around Abby and Martha Brewster, two elderly women whose unique hobby is murdering lonely old men! Their "nephew" Mortimer attempts to conceal the murders and protect his aunts from the police. Brothers Teddy and Jonathan complicate the situation by their hilarious antics while Mortimer's fiancee Elaine adds to the daily confusion.

Delighting the capacity crowds with their convincing portrayal of Abby and Martha were Colleen Shea and Felicia Fink. Other audience favorites included Peter Vogt as Teddy, Tim Lucca as Officer O'Hara, and Mark Amend as Dr. Einstein.

A new concept of student-built and created sets was introduced this year by Fred Gates and his assistant, Janice Adams. The production staff was headed by Kim Davis and Paul Vogt and stage direction was by Mr. Cranston and student director Sandy Palanker.

The cops finally catch Jonathan (Andy Rudgalvis)

Abby (Colleen Shea) and Martha (Felicia Fink) serve their wine

Elaine (Lisa Coppola) isn't pleased to be sent home

Officer O'Hara (Tim Lucca) explains the plot of his play

Teddy (Peter Vogt) is suprised by Lt. Rooney (Jeff Ehrenberg)

Rev. Harper (Alex Short) visits Miss Abby for tea

Lt. Rooney decides to collect the reward for Jonathan

Dr. Einstein (Mark Amend) sneaks into the Brewster house

Mortimer (Tom Bauerle) suprises Mr. Gibbs (Jamie Zimmer)

ANYTHING GOES

Kenmore East's exciting and fast-stepping musical for 1981 was presented on March 12, 13, and 14. Cole Porter's Anything Goes, set on a cruise from New York to London, thrilled capacity audiences each night. East was again treated to the professional set designing of Ted Patton, with student Fred Gates assisting.

The show featured Christina Palmeri in the lead role of Reno Sweeney. Two young lovers, Hope Harcourt and Billy Crocker are also aboard ship. Renee Boyer and Andy Denler were dynamic in these roles. The fumbling gangster, Moonface Martin, was played by Paul Vogt. In the role of the stuffy Englishman, Sir Evelyn, was veteran Alex Short. Supporting lead roles were held by Cindy Zenosky as Bonnie, Felicia Fink as Mrs. Harcourt, and Mark Amend as Mr. Whitney.

Mr. Cranston added his expertise as stage director, while Mr. Doyle served as choral director. Mr. Baroudi directed the orchestra, and Mr. Weselak lended his technical advice. Key staff positions were held by Lisa Coppola, student director; Kim Davis, coordinator; Janice Adams, stage manager; and Kathy Peters, choreographer.

Bonnie (Cindy Zenosky) explains how to get to heaven

Moonie (Paul Vogt) attempts to use "putt putt putt"

Ching (Brian Busch) and Ling (Sean Leous) shoot craps

Billy (Andy Denler) charms Mrs. Harcourt (Felicia Fink)

The passengers and crew sing the praises of their ship

Reno (Christina Palmeri) and the Angels look forward to England

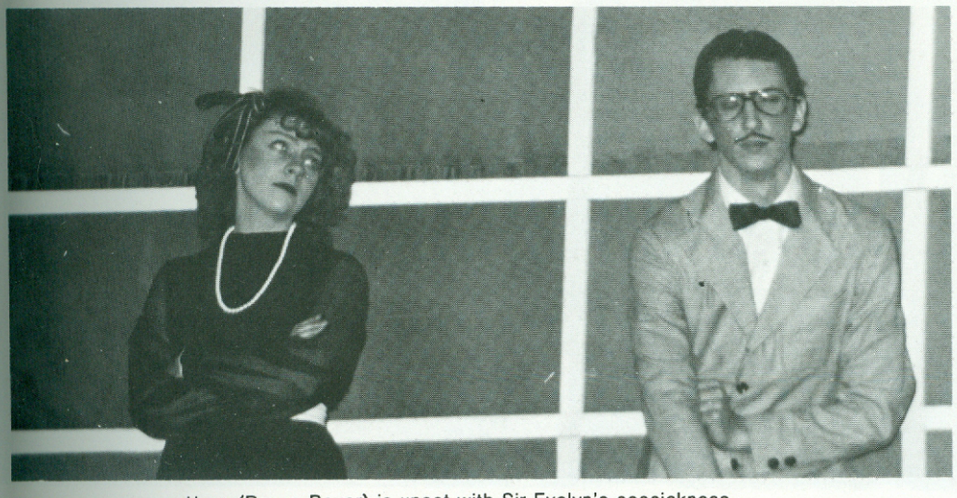

Reno and Sir Evelyn (Alex Short) misbehave

Mr. Whitney (Mark Amend) escorts Mrs. Harcourt

Moonie runs into his lookalike, the Bishop (Peter Vogt)

Hope (Renee Boyer) is upset with Sir Evelyn's seasickness

The Captain (John Murnan) is confused by some disguises

STUDENT SPEAKOUT

The first full year of this decade was filled with many conflicts and turmoils. Varied opinions served to accentuate these differences among East students. Nevertheless, favorites Clint Eastwood, Robert Redford, Goldie Hawn, and Jane Fonda appear to have a stronghold at East. Students enjoy listening to Bob Seger, The Who, Led Zeppelin, and Supertramp. Popular movies include Stir Crazy and Nine To Five, and M*A*S*H continues to entertain television viewers. Comedy is a dominant part of our lives and Richard Pryor, George Carlin, and Robin Williams contribute their lightheartedness.

Students seem to be concerned about serious issues also. Many fear the Reagan Administration, are relieved the the Iranian crisis is over , and closer to home, are dissatisfied with the condition of school lavs and clocks.

Luke and Laura thrill viewers with their escapades .

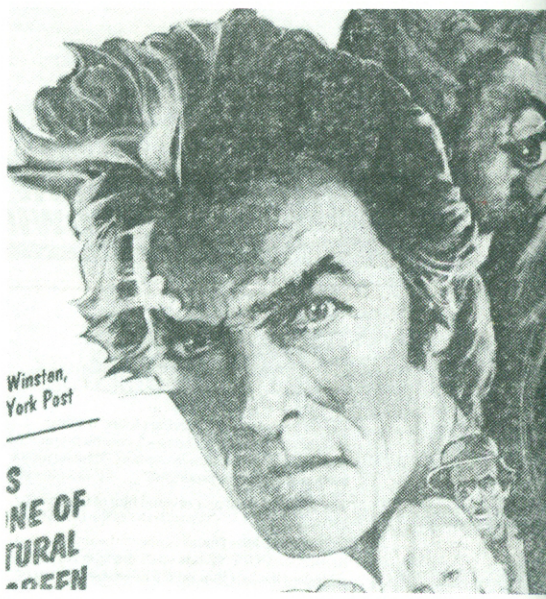

Pat Benetar was voted favorite female singer.

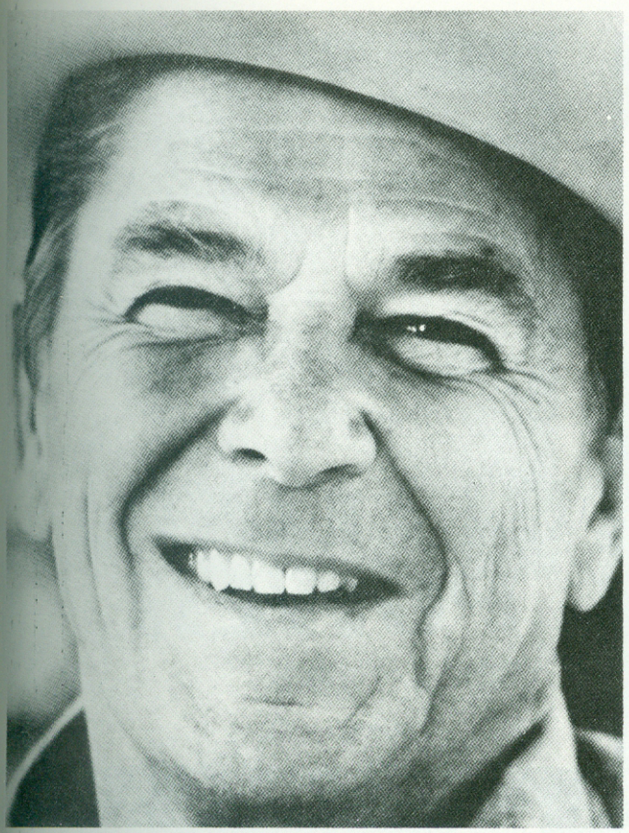

Stir Crazy won votes for its star, Richard Pryor.

The lavs are still a big problem at East.

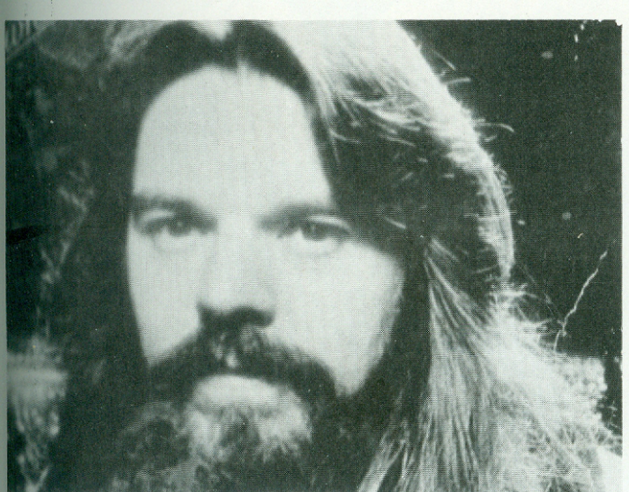

Clint Eastwood delights movie-goers.

Our new President — Ronald Reagan.

Students were angered over the murder of John Lennon

Bob Seger — the best concert this year.

The Bills brought spirit to our town this year.

One favorite actress was Miss Piggy.

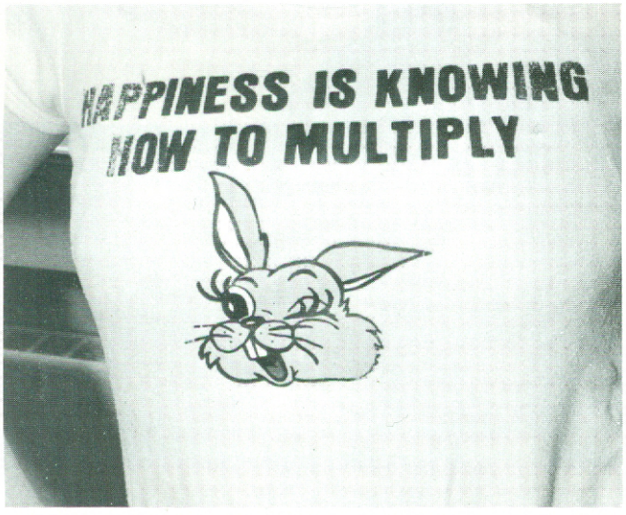

For years M*A*S*H has been a quality show.

INDIVIDUALISM . . .

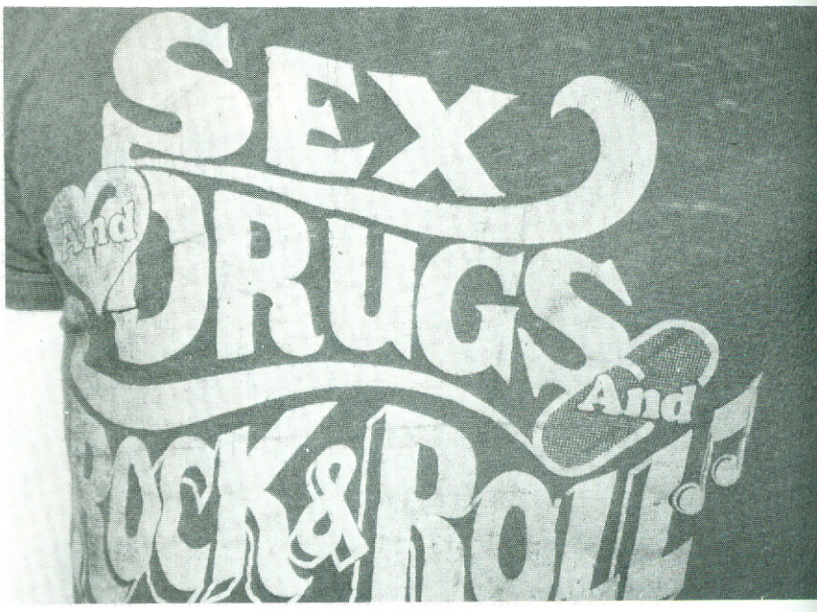

. . . is often expressed by what we wear. Ken-East students enjoy a wide variety of fashions. Gazing down a hallway, one might observe Bastad clogs, Jordache jeans, topsiders, little print turtlenecks, and button-downs. More casual dress is characterized by cords, flannel shirts, and T-shirts. T-shirts are universal: They're comfortable dress and interesting attention-getters. Our collection at East includes original, down- to-earth, and sometimes shocking T-shirts!

A spirited T-shirt

East teaches mathematics well

A well-liked combination

Students enjoy a touch of nostalgia

Sports is a big part of our lives

Everything's a no-name brand

A TRIBUTE: CLASS OF '81

The class of '81 has lived through many historical events. Men have walked on the moon, Nixon resigned from the presidency, and we have celebrated our country's bicentenniel. Our high school years have also been filled with various international events. Closest to us, though, have been the halls of Kenmore East. We've lived and learned much throughout the past three years. It's been a slow and sometimes painful process, but our growth is quite evident.

JUNIOR YEAR

Gregg Firster enjoys a calm moment.

John Walsh masters the art of fencing.

Chris Hewson takes a nap in the hall.

Denise Volz and

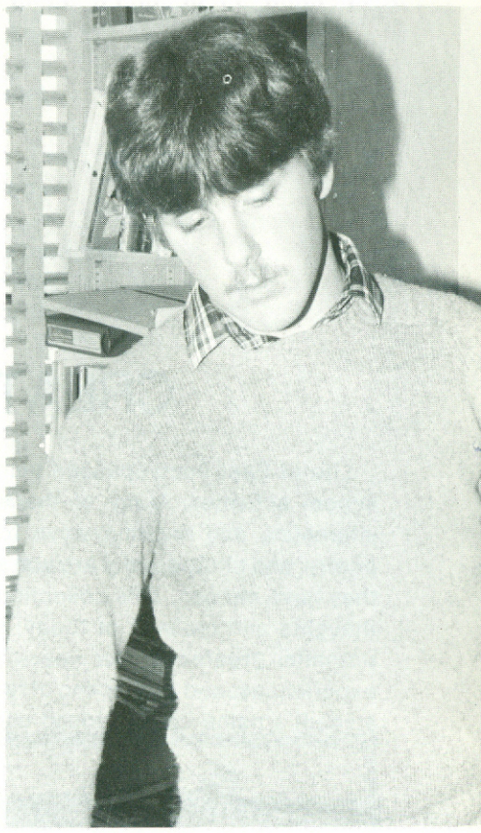

Sue Peperone daydreams while eating.

Amy Cutler is a confused junior.

Ed Jones is whipped.

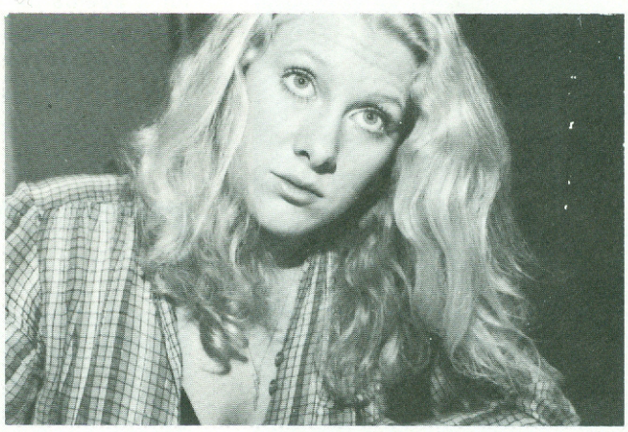

Mark Kreib considers going home.

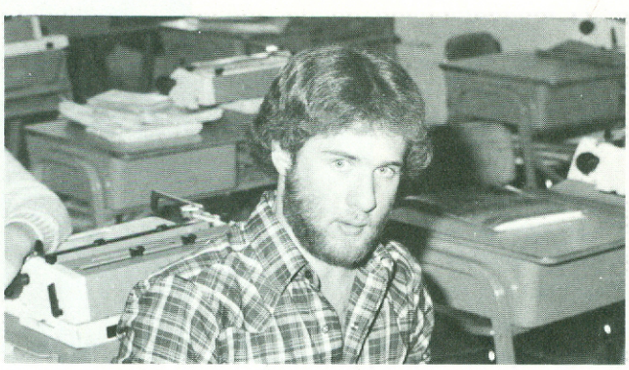

SENIOR YEAR

Julie Suranyi babysit.

Janet Morse tries the 'lost puppy' look.

Mike Geschwender models his hairy chin.

Keith McAfee and Bill Steggs display their moods.

CREATIVE COLLAGE

Life at East encompasses much more than classes and after-school activities. Many of the students here have found many interesting and exciting ways to express themselves. Artwork, poetry, and photography are just some of the creative expressions they have chosen. This collection of works is dedicated to all the thoughts and feelings of today, for they will mold our future into potential greatness. Our years at East have been chockful of experiences, and a sampling of reflections from them follows. Each student's name can be found under his or her work.

I see the pain . . .
Your eyes speak so loudly for you.
They tell of your sorrow through gazes and glances, meant to distract but unwittingly giving themselves away —
Expressing yourself as words never could.

Susan Casey

Time Passes

Time passes slowly,
seeming unimportant,
to a child.
But as he grows
the clock ticks faster,
and time becomes noticed.
We grow old
and time is again unnoticed for it seems to pass so quickly
we barely know it's there.

Hold On

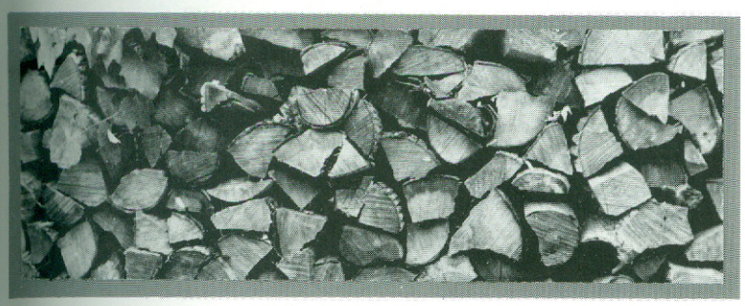

Hold on for just a moment, friends,
Before we say goodbye.
Let's build one last memory;
We can, if we try.

Hold on a little longer, friends,
Before we drop the final curtain.
Today we dwell in security,
While tomorrow is so uncertain.

Hold on as long as possible
Before we close the door.
Let's chase the butterflies and dreams of childhood once more.

Now the time has come, my friends,
At last we must depart.
But as you forge ahead in life
Cherish today within your heart.

Scott

I fell playing freeze-tag in the street
And somehow through the tears,
You managed to make me smile.
You caught the big spider crawling up my wall
After I swore I'd never speak to you again.
And when you ruined my favorite toy;
Even then, I couldn't stay mad for long.
Now it's time to part
And go our separate ways.
We fought,
We laughed,
We cried,
And through it all remained as one —
Brother and Sister.
Our lives will never be the same apart,
But our pasts will never change.

Laurie Marx
(reflection from the grave)

I warned you all of death
Of poisonous chemicals and foods
Of false freedom and democracy.
I'm peacefully here watching
As state capitalism sneaks in,
Americans come join me
You'd rather be dead than red.

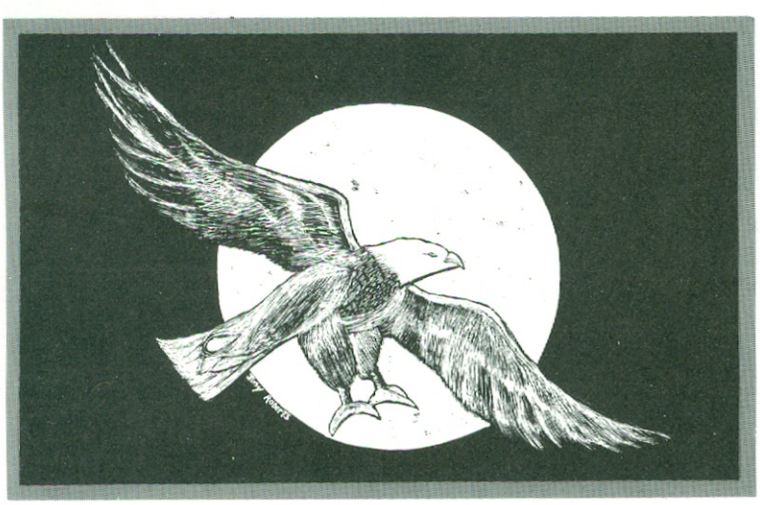

Smile of Sadness

Tears outpouring, speaking of hidden pain
Of a sorrow released, mixing with the rain.
So seldom the free cry unashamed,
The world frowns on emotions unnamed.
It's not right to let feelings flow free today;
Even though it feels good, cryings not the way . . .
No, hold your grief tightly, deep within,
Guard it as though it were a violent sin;
The world doesn't want to see it around,
So keep it so carefully, patiently bound.
Just paste on a smile to cover your tears,
Never let on that you might have some fears.
Be a person without emotions or name;
Play by the strict rules of the earthly game.
You might die in the process of holding sadness within,
But by the world's standards, that's the way to win.

Morning

I am awakened
by light
glimmering through the window glass
which shields me
from the outdoor world.

Opening slowly,
my eyes behold
the room in which my life is told
by objects I have saved.

They shift from object to object,
from diary, to little trinkets,
to the stuffed animals
in the corner,
then stop
at the shielding pane.

Peering through it,
I can "hear"
the whistling wind,
the chirping birds,
barking dogs, and playful,
laughing children.

My lips open
forming a smile;
and releasing a sigh,
I stand up to start my day.

Barbara Keller

Allan Hebeler

Flight

Tears smoulder in his eyes as he turns his head anger looks upon maudlin eyes with a burden of sorrow their lips are read — farewells encased in misty white lies.

He tears at the ceiling, searching for a cloud free bird rips apart his insides
he crys for the new life screaming out loud, until in a shepherd he confides

He springs from the darkness not looking back living free from this day forth the scars from the lashes are the fading reminder as the bird's soul begins to soar.

Katie Wartko

Reality

The cold winter snow
lies on the ground,
covering the filthy streets and cracked sidewalks.

It then melts away,
only to reveal the poverty
stricken streets of the ghetto.

Walking

Walking down a dark street,
In my mind I feel sad,
When hoping to see my love,
For I know he will be there.

Walking down a dark street,
I begin to feel happiness.
When in my mind I think of him,
For I know he will be near.

Walking down a street so light
I begin to feel more than happiness; I feel love.
When in my mind I see visions of him,
For I know he is here.

We stood and watched, our eyes unable to believe
How they could do such a thing — we in the crowd just couldn't believe.
Our mouths were all gaping, as the bandits beat the old man.
Not one of us could detach ourselves to foil the evil plan.
So there we all stood, on that hot summer day,
Not a muscle stirred as the assailants fled away.
We still stood there, frozen, and engrossed in the sight
so appalled, yet unaware, that it was actually our delight.

A year could never be so wonderful,
Filled with love, warmth and care.
A year with the feeling of safety,
I was safe because he was there.

A year filled with all the good times,
These memories behind a door.
Opening it is like springtime,
He is all that I'm living for.

A year has passed and gone,
From sun, to snow, then rain.
The best time of my life is over,
until I open the door again.

Linda Kasperek

Ride a Rainbow

Dare to ride a rainbow,
To follow it to the end;
Realize that dreams are worthy,
And then come back, my friend.

Come back and share the colors
Which are dancing in your eyes;
Tell me of the love you found,
Of laughter's golden prize.

For I need to believe in a dream,
But I haven't the time, my friend;
So I'm asking you to share your rainbow . . .
Please ride for me to the end.

Laura Nelson

You may not like me or the way I am

That matters not.

Just respect me and my ways; for I am the way
I am, and the way I am is me

Remember — I'm me, not you

ADDITIONS IN MATH

This year there are two new courses being offered to math students. The first is a general math course for those who need to brush up on the basics. The second is an accelerated course for sophomores. The department is now working on an honors class the sophomores can take next year. Mr. Perno, a physics teacher, has rejoined the department teaching elementary and intermediate algebra. All of these changes add up to a strong math program at East.

SCIENCE FOR THE FUTURE

The main objective of our fine science department is to expose the students of Kenmore East to as much science as possible. Throughout the years a few technical changes have been evident, but the major emphasis remains the same. They offer a wide variety of courses to introduce the students to the many career opportunities in the realm of science. We live in the age of technology, and our science department is doing everything in its power to prepare the young generation for their role in future scientific developments.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Smaller classes have given the teachers greater opportunity to perfect their students' speaking ability in their respective languages. In a world that's growing closer and closer, it's becoming increasingly more advantageous to have knowledge of more than one language. With a bi-lingual Canada so near, it necessitates the use of another language.

HEALTH FOR FUN

Young people at East are discovering the importance of good health. Yogurt, jogging, and clean living are becoming commonplace. Our health department gives students a broad background so that they can better their own lives. People are learning that health is fun.

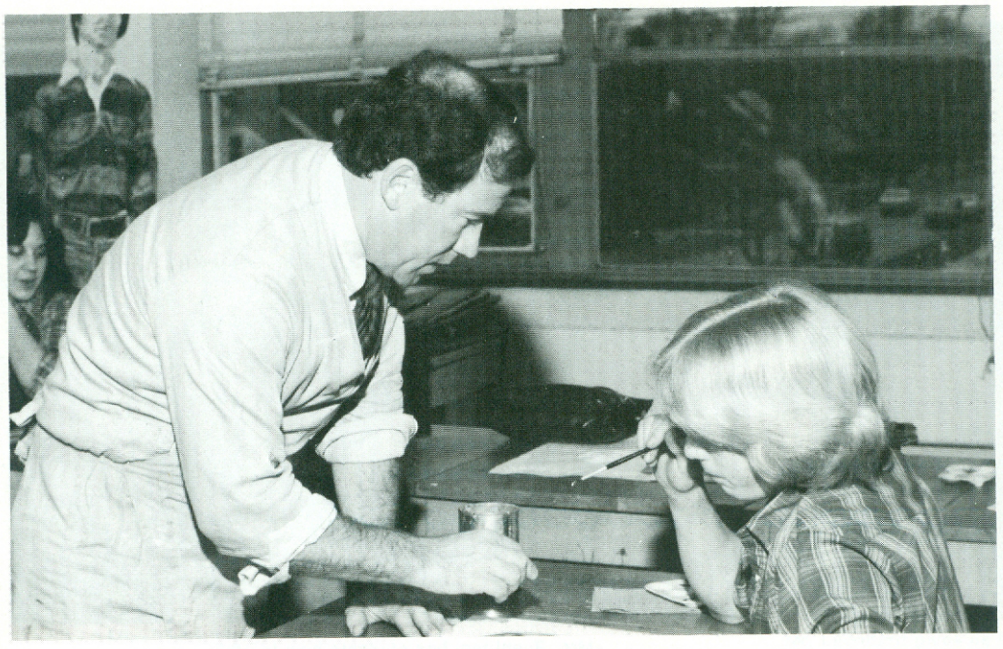

CREATIVITY IN ART

Nothing can compare to the feeling of a job well done. Fortunately, with the assistance of our excellent staff, art students at Kenmore can take pride in their accomplishments.

Courses in jewelry, arts and crafts, drawing and painting, and many others present great opportunities for students to show off their talent. Many of the students go on to achieve great success in the field of art.

AFS IS ON THE MOVE

The student exchange club of Kenmore East organized several interesting activities during the year. Besides welcoming foreign students, these activities included an international weekend, a winter camp out, a spring donut sale, and an all school camp out in the spring. An appointed board of directors provided guidance and organization for the club throughout the year. A.F.S. also sponsored a summer camp out for all the exchange students in fifty area high schools.

BOOSTER CLUB SHOWS SCHOOL SPIRIT

One of the largest organizations at Ken-East is the Booster Club. This club strives to boost school spirit and support school activities. A lot of time and hard work go into planning activities for a year. They work to support all the athletic events and sell refreshments at games and school activities. This year's booster club sponsored a masquerade day and continued the traditions of selling blue and gold carnations and candy canes at Christmas. They also participated in blue-gold week end. The club made several accomplishments throughout the year and raised spirits at K-E. Go Boosters!

The old Company of Song, now has a new name. They are now Songs Incorporated. The group is a mixed chorus consisting of fifty-two members, chosen through individual auditions. The group, along with Doris Payne and Margie Kovach as pianists, performed many times throughout the year all over Western New York. This year's show featured a choreographed musical revue of famous Broadway musical. In addition, Songs Inc. performed Faure's Requium, and The Last Words of David, along with the Ken-Ton Symphony Orchestra, in December. We plan to make our annual trip to the city of Philadelphia.

DRAMA CLUB HAMS IT UP

Kenmore East's Drama Club has enjoyed many fun and educational activities this year. The two main activities the members are involved in are the all-school play and the musical. The members are students who are interested in the theater. Through this club, they learn many aspects of the theater and get some acting experience.

Members display Dramatic talent.

A TOUCH OF CLASS

This group has gone through change this year. They have changed their names to "A Touch of Class," and that is what they have added to the field. You can see these girls at all football games at half-time when they march with the band. As always, the highlight of the year is Blue-Gold weekend. Despite the rain, the girls had a float and marched to support our team.

EASTONIAN IS IN THE NEWS

The 1980-1981 staff has kept very busy under the critical eyes of advisor Mrs. Susan Grabenstatter and editor-in-chief Don Gagliardi. The reporters have worked hard all year to keep the student body at Kenmore East well-informed of school activities and other students functions through our school newspaper, "The Eastonian." The staff has also worked toward maintaining their high standards in their journalism.

GAA ENCOURAGES GIRLS' SPORTS

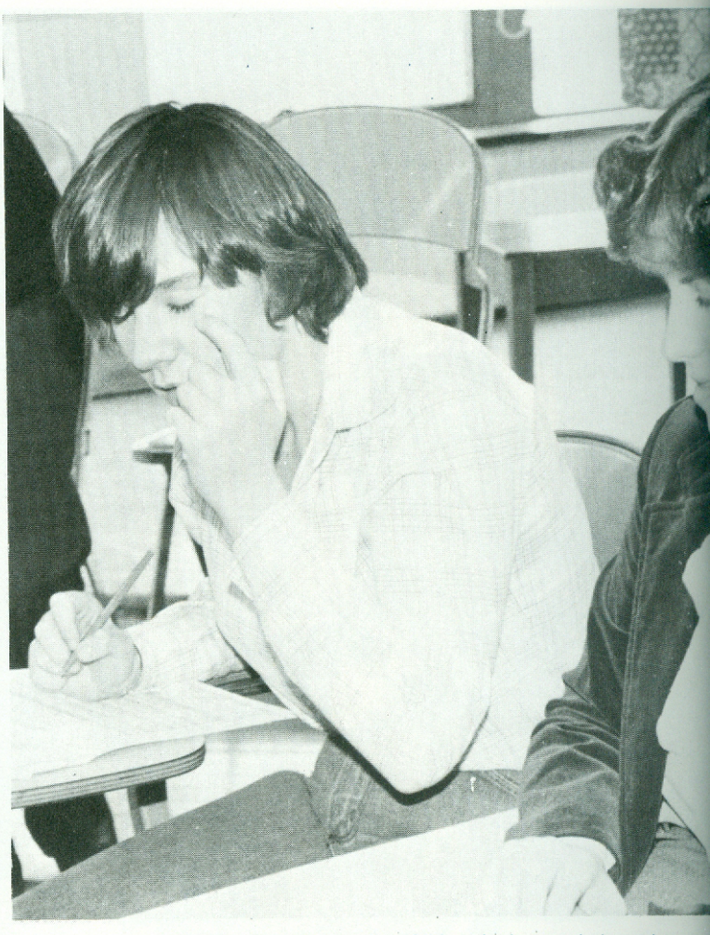

This year was both fun and rewarding for the Girls' Athletic Association at East. This year's organization was under the leadership of president Mary Beth Priore, vice- president Michelle Jahren, secretary Pam Taylor, treasurer Kathy Sorrento, and advisor Miss Sue Fuller. GAA's main goal is to support and encourage girls' athletics and other activities such as the annual jacket sale.

GIRLS IMPROVE THEIR VOICES

This year's Girls Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Potts, had a very successful year. The girls met twice a week to perfect their voices. Girls Chorus is for any girl who likes singing, and would like to improve her voice. The girls perform their programs at other schools, as well as Kenmore East.

GERMAN CLUB IS A TRADITION

The German Club at Kenmore East is an established organization with a tradition of enriching the Language instruction in the classrooms. This club is open to all students interested, not only those who are German students Interested students are introduced to study and travel programs to German speaking countries. The number of members has been traditionally small but the closeness of the group and the fun have been the clubs strong points.

NHS REACHES OUT

The National Honor Society's main purposes are to honor the highest achieving students, to promote leadership, and to encourage the development of character. NHS meets the first Tuesday of each month. This year the members have participated with the Tonawanda policemen's wives in a charity drive for the needy of Tonawanda. Throughout the year they provide tutorial services for those who wish to receive extra help in their subjects. One change that has been made this year is that Juniors with averages above a 94 are inducted in the spring. This provides a continuity between the incoming members and the graduating Seniors of NHS.

TUNED IN TO THE 80'S

The 1980-81 year was an active one for the Kenmore East orchestra. Their busy schedule included an elementary concert in February, and they participated in the New York State Solo and Large Ensemble Festival in May. Their performances in the all-school musical, "Anything Goes", and in the Arts Festival were also well appreciated. In addition, an engagement at Art Park in conjunction with Kenmore West and Sweet Home High Schools was planned. Trips to Cleveland, Ohio in the spring rounded off the year.

SKIERS TAKE TO THE HILLS

In 1980-81, the Ski Club of Kenmore East enjoyed a fun and active year. The skiers took advantage of the winter season by making trips to the popular Kissing Bridge Ski area on Monday afternoons, if the weather permitted. The club's president, Kathy Peters, and vice-president, Paul Biddle, arranged to have films shown during lunch periods and a free ski-engraving of social security numbers on club members' skis. A trip to Vermont was also planned to top off the year.

SPECTRUM IS COLORFUL

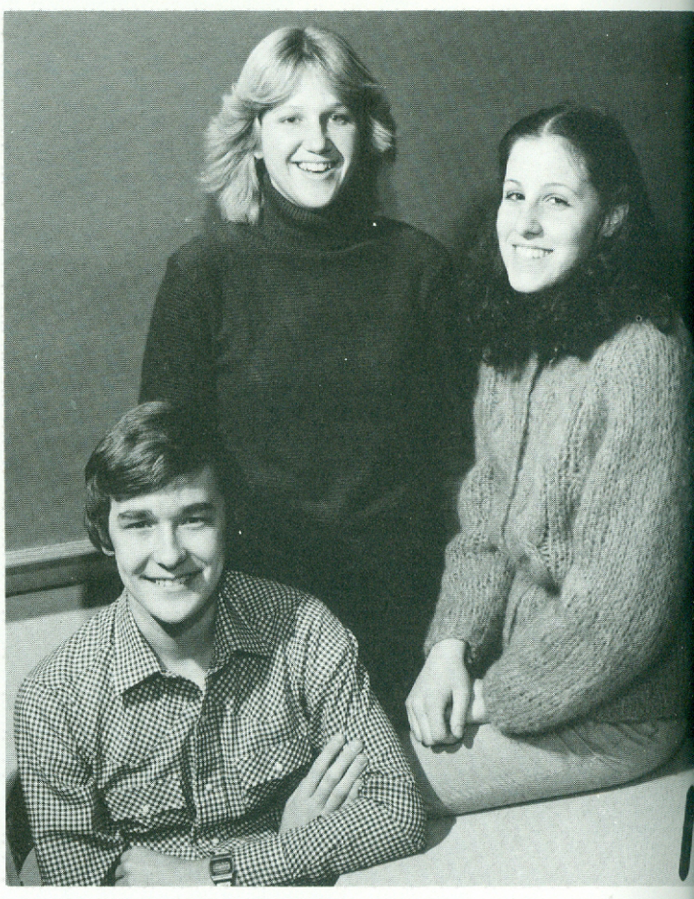

Under the leadership of Editor-in-chief Sue Kingston and Advisor Mr. Stock, the staff worked hard to put together this year's yearbook. This year's staff was made up of many veterans and new comers that worked well together. Michele Case helped with layouts, Renae Wilder was faculty editor, and Mindy Ellick helped with faculty pictures and typing. Thanks to the artistic help of Mr. Butler and the photographic expertise of Art Cashmere, this year's yearbook was a huge success.

FORUM THRIVES WITH ACTIVITY

Student Forum is the student government at Kenmore East. Its purpose is to act as the liasion between students and faculty, to plan social events, and to improve the climate at East.

This year, Forum played music over the P.A., established a school store, and received permission for informal study halls. On behalf of K.E. students, Forum contributed to the Salvation Army and raised $396.86 for the United Way. Also, a bi-weekly column in the Kenmore Record Advertiser was secured, which told of events occurring at East.

FOOTBALL TEAM IMPROVES SEASON

The football Bulldog's had an improved 1980 campaign, finishing with a 4-4 overall record and a 4-2 division record. The 4-2 record placed them second behind powerhouse Sweet Home. They did however post a very impressive 20-6 victory over cross town rival Kenmore West in the final game of the year. Under the leadership of tri-captains Earl Kirbis, Dave McMahon, and Scott Weaver, the team improved their dismal 2-5-1 record of the year before. The team had a very strong defense which was led by All Western New York Nose Tackle, Wes Dove. The team suffered a disheartening 3-0 defeat to North Tonawanda in their blue-gold game. The 1981 Bulldogs will look to captains Wes Dove, Tom McLeod, and Mike Perrelli to lead them to a successful 1981 campaign.

The football Bull-pups posted a very impressive 6-1-1 record. Although the team was very small in size, they were very big in heart and never gave up. The team dumped cross town rival Kenmore West 13-6 to cap an extremely well played and successful season. Captains Mike Harris and John Stoll were the team's leading rushers, Mike Herb led the team in receiving, and Marc Panepinto led a vicious defense in tackles. The players of the 1980 JV should be an asset to Coach MacKellar's 1981 varsity Bulldogs.

SOCCER TEAMS HAVE FINE SEASON

The 1980 soccer season was successful for the Kenmore East Booters. The team had a 10-4-3 record and moved on to the Section VI playoffs where they lost to Kenmore West.

Senior captains Bob DiNunzio and Ken Kasperek led a very well balanced attack. Bob Brunner had a fine year as he was named most improved player. DiNunzio was named to the All Wester New York Team for the second year and was also named MVP. Coach Sturm looks forward to a more successful season next year.

GOLF TEAM COMPLETES ANOTHER UNDEFEATED YEAR

The 1980 Kenmore East golf team completed their third straight undefeated season with a 14½-3½ victory over Niagara Falls. The team also grabbed their fourth straight NFL title, a record in the league. Under the leadership of captain Gary Janos and the steady match play of Tom Dundas, Kyle Pray, Bill Russo, and Pete Henesey, the team won their first two matches in close contests and then never looked back. Coach Walter's team played extremely well all season with senior Tom Dundas taking first place in the NFL Individual Championship Meet at Ransom Oaks. Gary Janos placed fourth in the meet as the team earned first place with a score of 416. All the above mentioned linksmen were named to the post-season All-NFL team. From the beginning of the season, the Ken-East team was considered the team best in the NFL. Next year, Coach Walter's team will look to captain Pete Henesey to lead them.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM RUNS TO VICTORY

Coach Marv Matteson's 1980-81 Cross Country team posted a very impressive 8-1 record. Under the leadership of tri-captains Dave Palmer, Rob Ross, and Mike Weimer, the team's biggest thrill came with the defeat of perennial powerhouse Lockport. Rob Ross and Gregg Firster were named to the All-NFL team. Next Year's team will be led by co-captains Eric Backman and Chips Assad.

SWIMMERS PLUNGE

The 1980-81 Ken-East swimmers posted an overall 6-8 record. Led by captains Ryan Mahoney and Lee Pufpaff, the team lacked enough depth to be a powerhouse. Also led by All-AFL swimmer Rob Yendall, the team showed well in the NFL meet. Here Yendall was named "swimmer of the meet." Mahoney (100 yd. breast) along with Pufpaff (50 and 100 yd. free) also obtained All-League honors. Next year's team will look to strong swimmers like Bill Girard, Ken Neubecker, and Bob Crawford to lead them to the top.

BASKETBALL GOES FAR

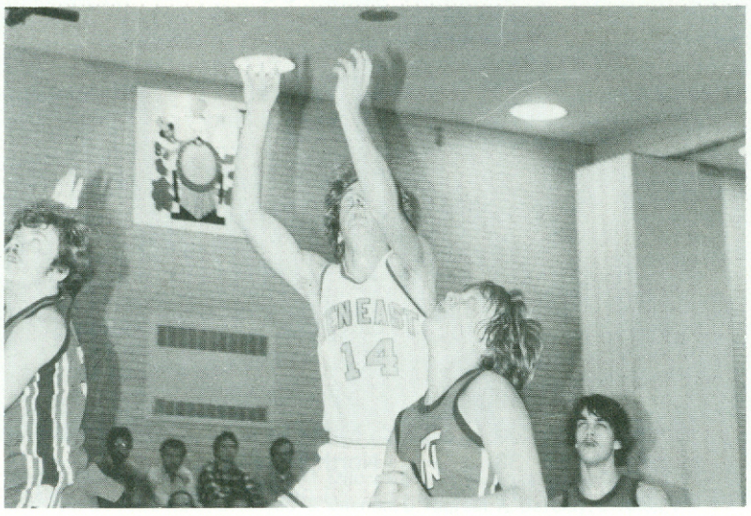

The 1980-81 basketball team completed their season with a 64-55 loss to powerhouse Williamsville East in the Section VI semi-finals. Under the leadership of Dave Dietrich and Peter Askey, the bulldogs suffered many injuries and a flu epidemic which cost them key players such as Charlie Gambino. Peter Askey completed this season with a school record for most varsity games played. Captains Dietrich, Askey and Lance Palumbo all had fine seasons as the team finished with a league record of 10-8.

The 1980-81 J.V. basketball team completed their league season with a record-setting 15-0 record. The team had a superb defense which held their opponents to an average 34 points per game. The defense set a record by holding the Tonawanda team to a mere 17 points. Mike Harris set three individual records including most free throw attempts in one game (18). The team played extremely well together as a unit and always knew they would win, no matter what happened. The team was the first, varsity or junior varsity, to go undefeated in league play. The fine J.V. players are sure to be an asset to the 1981-82 varsity basketball bulldogs.

MATMEN COMPLETE FINE SEASON

The 1980-81 Kenmore East Matmen completed their season with a 6-6-1 record. The team, an extremely young one, was led by all league wrestlers Gary Cacciatore, Frank Verdi, and Mike Rowe. The team worked extremely hard to achieve its success. Gary Cacciatore completed another superb season by winning the NFL Tournament, and placing third in his weight class at the Section VI Tournament. Next year, Mr. Pine's team will welcome back young wrestlers in hope of having another productive year.

EAST RIFLEMEN SHOOT FOR THE TOP

Although their overall record was 4-8, the 1980-81 Kenmore West rifle team posted a 4-0 league record to capture the NFL title. Captains Warren Busch and Scott Puffer led the team to easy victories over Kenmore West and Tonawanda. Coach Ellen Parson's team faced a very tough schedule and lost many close matches like a 1300-1297 loss to Orchard Park. Coach Parsons looks forward to next year and a more successful season.

BASEBALL BULLOOGS WIN IT ALL

The baseball Bulldogs captured the 1980 Section VI AA title in a thrilling victory over West Seneca West. The team was led by tri-captains Tom Conwell, Brian Caputi, and Ken Ruta. Even with injuries to key players like Ken Ruta, Terry O'Brien and Paul Steffan, the Bulldogs rolled up a 14-4 overall record and NFL Co-champion honors with Niagara Wheatfield. The team, referred to as " . . . the deepest team I've ever coached," by coach Marafino, should, along with the addition of players from a superb JV squad, again be an NFL contender.

Doug Palmer mows 'em down.

The 1980 baseball "Bull-pups" posted an impressive 14-1 record. Their only loss came against Grand Island in a 15-10 contest. Led by the 5-0 pitching of Dave Carleton and Duane Paddock, the team was the best in the NFL. The season was highlighted by Paddock's perfect game in the season opener against Tonawanda. The outstanding players of the 1980 JV team are sure to be an asset to the 1981 Bulldogs.

TRACK TEAM HAS A DISAPPOINTING SEASON

The 1980 Bulldog tracksters were undoubtedly the best 3-4 team in WNY. Even though the season was less than successful, there were some outstanding performances: Scott Peters' 13' in the pole vault; Paul Spongr's 6'1" in the high jump; Gary Konitsch with a third best 330 intermediate hurdles time of 41 seconds. Other thinclads that enjoyed fine seasons were: Bill Dein in the sprints, Terry Smith in the 440, Don Jacobs in the 880, Ed Tato in the two mile, and Sam Geraci in the long and triple jumps. JV VOLLEYBALL NETS TOUGH SEASON

The Kenmore East Girls' Jv Volleyball Team had a very difficult season this year even though they came up with final overall record of 7 wins and 6 losses.

Outstanding performers this season include: Juniors Pam Brinkman and Mary Beth Schmitt. As a result of their fine play, they were voted the Most Valuable Players.

Coach Kenline commented the team had a very serious attitude which later helped in the matches when they won against schools such as Lewiston-Porter, Niagara Falls, Niagara Wheatfield, and Tonawanda.

GIRL'S VARSITY BASKETBALL NETS EXCELLENT SEASO

The Girl's Varsity Basketball Team, under the leadership of Captain Traci Prinz, had one of their best seasons ever this year with a record of 10 wins and 4 losses. With this outstanding record, Kenmore East finished the season tied with Niagara Wheatfield for 2nd place in the Niagara Frontier League.

Players who were most valuable to the team during the season were: Chris Piciulo and Pam Taylor; the players who sparked the team into action, and Laurie Moline; the team's leading scorer. Other players who made accomplishments were: Yvonne Jackson; most steals in a single game, and Sophomore Lisa Borga; who is possibly the best passer in the Niagara Frontier League.

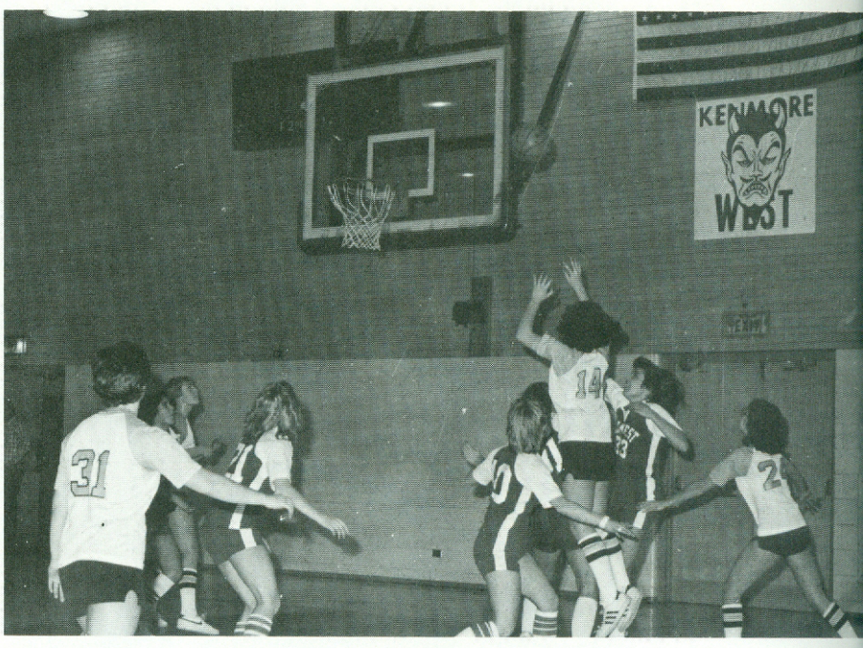

Coach Abramson commented that the team was very cooperative and eager to win; they seemed to enjoy playing more than most of the other teams that she had coached, and the girls were very supportive of each other during the whole season.

Chris Piciulo looks for an opening.

TRIBUTE TO WILFRED WALTER

For almost twenty-two years Wilfred Walter served as an industrial arts teacher and coach at Kenmore East. Several years ago he relinquished his position as the coach of bowling but he continued as our golf coach. His teams always did well for he was not only a fine athlete but an excellent coach. In recent years Mr. Walter assumed new duties and handled the audio-visual services at the school.

Mr. Walter was a member of the original staff of fifty-five teachers and administrators who opened this school. His services to students, others on the faculty, and the administration did much to make East the fine school it is.

Mr. Walter was always willing to aid others. He gave freely of his time and efforts to help students and other staff members. His kind and gentle manner, his wonderful sense of humor, his ability to be critical of a situation but never of people made him an invaluable member of our staff. He had a clear perception of the goals we had for the school; he constantly worked with us in achieving them.

All of us who knew "Bill" were fortunate. His friendship, his caring for others, his ability to sense when others needed help or simply a kind word made our lives and work at East more enjoyable. We were extremely fortunate to have had Mr. Walter with us. He will be sorely missed by us for we have lost a wonderful friend. But we shall never forget what he did for the students and staff of the school.
