Code of Conduct for Parents and Spectators:

As a parent and spectator, I will strive to:

- Yell encouragement to the entire team, Refrain from making negative comments
- Relinquish responsibility for the athletes to the coach during the game
- Applaud performances and effort demonstrated by both teams
- Instill and reinforce the competition as a game and sport, not a war
- Help a young athlete see the positive side if disappointment occurs
- Point out the positive, not the mistakes when "replaying the game"
